Historical Notes: According to a document in this collection, the Lanark Hills Foundation has been established to learn about that which we call our life and to explore a new way of living without fear. The Foundation's interest is in self-education and in exploring the teachings of J. Krishnamurti. This same document references a 100 acre farm/communal living arrangement, and says that visitors were welcome. The Foundation had a co-operative games business named Family Pastimes.
