Historical Notes: Twin Valleys School was an alternative educational community founded in 1971 by George and Pat Bullied. It was a materialization of a dream George had to provide a place for troubled kids where they could learn how to live, while learning how to make a living. The National Film Board of Canada made a 1976 documentary about this school entitled Listen, Listen, Listen. For more information, see Bullied, George J. People of the Valley.
