Abstract: This collection consists of newsletters and some general information.

Historical Notes: Temenos is a retreat center located on a 78-acre tract of land in Shutesbury, Massachusetts. Its founders were Quakers who were deeply interested in Buddhism as well. As at other similar centers, a core resident staff serves a larger public. Facilities are available for small groups and for individual retreats. Temenos has been in operation since the 1970's. Sources: Miller, Timothy. The encyclopedic guide to American intentional communities. 2nd ed. Clinton, New York: Richard W.
