Abstract: This collection consists of an undated newsletter about the cooperative community.

Historical Notes: Information about this community comes from documents from this collection: P.E.A.C.E. stood for Positive Energy Alternative Community Environment. It was envisioned that groups of like-minded people would settle in villages and offer society solutions for society's ills. Size would range between 500 to 5,000. Villages would be founded on BLM or Forest Service lands, or marginal land returned to the public from industry, etc. The villages would be self-sufficient.
