Abstract: This collection contains material relating to community events. The collection consists of flyers and other items about the community activities from 2008 to 2021.

Historical Notes: The community began in 2007 in an historic residence. HM157, Historical Monument #157 on the California Landmark list, also referred to as The Horace P Dibble House (circa 1886) is in the Los Angeles neighborhood of Lincoln Heights. The community functions as a music venue, gallery, live/work space, farm, and location for public and private events, film/photo shoots, cinema screenings, eco-workshops, skill sharing and more. The community is dedicated to the propagation of positive possibilities.
