ID Number: UA 006

Title: Strategic Enrollment Management Collection

Extent: 4 Boxes

Span Dates: 1960s – 2020s

Language: English

Geographic Location: Indiana

Abstract: This collection consists of course bulletins, class schedules, and other items from the Strategic Enrollment Management Division at the University of Southern Indiana in Evansville, Indiana from 1965 to 2021.

Historical Notes:

- The Office of Admissions is responsible maintaining admissions standards for the University. It produces the class bulletins, which sets the requirements for all programs at the University and serves as a handbook for students for the policies of the University. Formerly known as the Admission Office, the name changed in 2015 to Undergraduate Admission Office. The office is currently located in the Orr Center.
- Student Financial Assistance is dedicated to helping University of Southern Indiana students and their families navigate the financial aid process and educating them in making the best use of all resources available to help finance the cost of their education. Student Financial Assistance is in the Robert D. Orr Center.
