

Collection Summary

ID Number: UA 026

Title: College of Liberal Arts Collection

Extent: 6 Boxes

Span Dates: 1960's – 2020's

Language: English, Spanish

Geographic Location: Indiana

Abstract: This collection consists of flyers, department meetings, accreditation reports, and other items from the College of Liberal Arts at the University of Southern Indiana in Evansville, Indiana from 1968 to 2020.

Historical Notes:

- When the University opened in 1965 it was called the Division of Social Sciences. The College of Liberal Arts was established in 2005. Prior to the foundation of the College, it was called the School of Liberal Arts from 1988 to 2005. USI.edu: College of Liberal Arts
- The Art and Design Program offers degrees as a major, minor, or art teacher certification. The collection consists of awards and events sponsored by the department. The department is in the Arts Center and is a part of the College of Liberal Arts. USI.edu: Art and Design
- The Center for Interdisciplinary Studies is located on the second floor of the Robert D. Orr Center. Their biggest event each year is the annual Colloquium series, showing USI faculty research across a wide range of academic disciplines centered on a single topic. USI.edu: Editor's Manual
- Communications Studies (now called Communication and Media) offered as a major and minor in the College of Liberal Arts. USI.edu: Communication and Media
- This project is between the University of Southern Indiana and various community groups in Evansville, Indiana. Dr. Kristalyn Shefveland (USI History Department), Dr. Leighanne Howard, and Dr. Lindsay Greer (USI Communication Department) had students in both departments to collect oral histories from local community members at various cultural and civic festivals. The goal of the project was to collect memories, stories, and recollections about Evansville, to introduce USI to conducting oral histories, and its importance to maintaining a regional history archive. Its value to the community is to provide a public history for them of personal accounts, experiences, and reflections in the Tristate region.
- The English program is a part of the College of Liberal Arts; however, the department is in the Orr Center. They offer four majors, six minors, and one master's degrees. USI.edu: English
- The History program is within the College of the Liberal Arts. USI.edu: History
- This collection includes materials on labor-related topics in Evansville, gathered by Glenda Morrison, the Director of the Indiana Labor History Project in Evansville. The year-long project focused on labor and labor unions in Evansville, 1920-1950. The collection also includes photographs taken December 1981 as part of the project and funded by the Indiana Committee for the Humanities.
- This collection also includes of materials of the A. Phillip Randolph Institute, an institute dedicated to the black freedom and equity movement.
- Also in this collection, Artificial Ice Workers Union, no. 12790 framed Certificate of Affiliation, May 12, 1909 signed by Mr. Samuel Gompers.
