Title: Center for Communal Studies Collection

Extent: 17 Boxes

Span Dates: 1900s – 2010s

Language: English

Geographic Location: Indiana

Abstract: This collection consists of conference papers, research notes, and other items from the Center for Communal Studies at the University of Southern Indiana in Evansville, Indiana from 1909-2018.

Historical Notes: The Center for Communal Studies was the clearinghouse for publications and headquarters for the National Historic Communal Societies Association, which became the Communal Studies Association. The Center for Communal Studies promotes the study of contemporary and historic communal groups, intentional communities, and utopias. Established in 1976 at USI (then Indiana State University-Evansville), the Center encourages and facilitates meetings, classes, scholarship, networking, and public interest in communal groups past and present, here, and abroad. It was originally housed in the College of Liberal Arts until 2017, when it moved over to the David L. Rice Library.
