Collection Summary

ID Number: UA 055

Title: Office of Planning, Research, and Assessment Collection

Extent: 9 Boxes

Span Dates: 1970's – 2010's

Language: English

Geographic Location: Indiana

Abstract: This collection consists of presentations, programs, grants, and other items from the Office of Planning, Research, and Assessment, the Human Relations Institute, and the Office of Sponsored Projects and Research Administration at the University of Southern Indiana in Evansville, Indiana from 1973 to 2011.

Historical Notes:

- The Office of Sponsored Projects and Research Administration (OSPRA) is dedicated to promoting a supportive environment for research, scholarly, and creative endeavors of faculty and academic staff at USI. OSPRA supports faculty and staff in their efforts to seek and secure extramural funding, monitors compliance of Federal, State, and University related regulations, administers the review of human subjects' research, provides grantsmanship and compliance training, and assists in non-financial post-award administration. USI.edu: Office of Sponsored Projects and Research Administration
- The Institutional Analytics Office is in the Bryon C. Wright Administration Building. Previous names of this office have been Institutional Research and Assessment and The Office of Planning, Research, and Assessment.

- The Human Relations Institute started in 1973 when Glenn Kenzie, a professor of education, wrote a grant starting this program and served as director. The workshops concentrated in training in black history and literature, methods and materials for culturally different youth and training in human relations, conflict prevention, and problem solving. Most participants were teachers, counselors, and administrators from the Evansville-Vanderburgh School Corporation (EVSC). It was funded through grants and lasted until 1979.
