

Collection Summary

ID Number: UA 064

Title: Facility Operations and Planning Collection

Extent: 3 Boxes

Span Dates: 1960's – 2010's

Language: English

Geographic Location: Indiana

Abstract: This collection consists of blueprints, maps, and other items from the Facility Operations and Planning department, Physical Activities Center (PAC), Griffin Center, Fuquay Welcome Center, Orr Center, and University Center at the University of Southern Indiana in Evansville, Indiana from 1967 to 2018.

Historical Notes:

- In November 2015, their name was changed to Facility Operations and Planning. Facility Operations and Planning is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the University of Southern Indiana as well as the planning of new developments on campus. These responsibilities include engineering (design and planning), construction management, building maintenance, rental vehicle reservation, waste and recycle management, energy management and conservation, grounds, lawns and landscaping maintenance, central heating and cooling plant operation, distribution services, and warehousing management. USI.edu: Facility Operations and Planning
- The Physical Activities Center (PAC) replaced the old Central High School gym as Indiana State University-Evansville's (ISUE) gym. Originally built in 1980, the PAC was known as the Health, Physical Education and Recreation (HPER) building, housing the university's men's basketball and women's basketball and volleyball teams. In thirty-nine years, the USI men's basketball team went 512-86 record when played at the PAC. The PAC served the site of USI's independence when Indiana governor, Robert Orr, signed USI's independence bill in 1985. The PAC was replaced by the Screaming Eagles Arena, a $66 million, 4,700-seat arena. - The Griffin Center opened on May 6, 2016. It was designed by architect, Jackson Faber. The building is named to honor the Robert E. Griffin family for their years of support to the University of Southern Indiana.
- The construction of the Fuquay Welcome Center started in September 2016. It is named after Dan and Janet Fuquay, due to a $2 million donation. It was officially opened in November 2018. USI.edu: The Shield Newspaper -- Welcome Center opens after numerous setbacks
- The Orr Center is dedicated in honor of former Indiana governor and Ambassador to Singapore, Robert D. Orr. It was the sixth major building constructed at the university and first since 1980. It opened on June 10, 1990, and housed the Counseling Center, Registrar Office, Admissions, Graduate Studies, and the English Department.
- The University Center (1974; expanded 1996 and 2011) is a two-winged building located at the heart of campus. University Center East, which opened in 2011, provides space for student organizations, two eateries, common areas including the Fireside and Heritage lounges, meeting and conference facilities and office space for the Dean of Students, Student Development Programs, the Multicultural Center, International Programs and Services, Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning and Outreach and Engagement.
