Abstract: This collection consists of brochures, reports, and other items from the Provost's Office, Online Learning, and Veterans, Military, and Family Resources Center at the University of Southern Indiana in Evansville, Indiana from 1978 to 2016.

Historical Notes:

- The focus of utmost importance is on teaching and learning and encouraging students and faculty members to engage in creative activity, diverse scholarship, applied research, and service and outreach activities that are designed to expand knowledge, improve instruction, increase learning, and provide optimum service to the University and the region. The former provosts are Robert Reid (1975-2003), Linda L. M. Bennett (2003-2009), Ronald S. Rochon (2009-2018), and Mohammad Khayum (2018-2023).
- The Center for Applied Research (CAR) is located within Outreach and Engagement at the University of Southern Indiana. CAR serves as a front door for regional business and organizations to connect with University resources including faculty, staff, students, equipment, and facilities. CAR coordinates a wide variety of projects, ranging from economic impact research to engineering design. We specialize in helping community business and organizations with their specific challenges, creating additional opportunities to thrive and grow for future success.
