

Collection Summary

ID Number: UA 017

Title: USI Foundation Collection

Extent: 6 Boxes

Span Dates: 1960s – 2010s

Language: English

Geographic Location: Indiana

Abstract: This collection consists of correspondence, reports, and other items from the USI Foundation at the University of Southern Indiana in Evansville, Indiana from 1965 to 2018.

Historical Notes: The USI Foundation has undergone numerous name changes: they were the Development Office until June 2008 when they became the Office of Advancement. The USI Foundation began in the fall of 1968, when Dr. David L. Rice, president emeritus of the University of Southern Indiana, and Byron C. Wright, vice president emeritus for Business Affairs and Treasurer, met with Mayor Frank F. McDonald Sr. in his office in downtown Evansville. Mayor McDonald was an avid supporter of the young campus and had a profound conviction that the University would be a tremendous benefit for the City of Evansville and the State of Indiana. Dr. Rice then approached Indiana State University President Alan C. Rankin about creating a foundation and received further encouragement. In seeking approval from his trustees, Dr. Rankin noted that the establishment of a foundation in Evansville was important. He emphasized Mayor McDonald's point that Evansville-area donors would give more enthusiastically to an Evansville organization. Because the Evansville campus did not have the necessary staff, Dr. Rankin also offered the assistance of the foundation in Terre Haute to help begin this effort.
