Dearest Ann,

How are you, I hope in good health, Ann I haven't heard from you for a couple of weeks, but I hope you are still writing because I sure like to receive letters from you,

Ann in your last letter you asked me when I was coming home well now Ann, to tell you the truth after this war is over and I am still alive, then I will come home. Because Ann you know some body has to fight this war. You know we can't all be U.S. Soldiers like some of those guys back there,

Ann after this war is over with I bet those guys back there they will really have some big stories to tell how they fought this war + if they weren't even out of the States,

Ann like that Bro. of ^{mine} ~~my~~ Leander when he writes home he always tell Mother Boy how hard he has got it. Boy he don't even know what war is like. Now you ~~wait~~ just ^{wait} until Martin or I come back there we will really be able to tell you what this war was like.

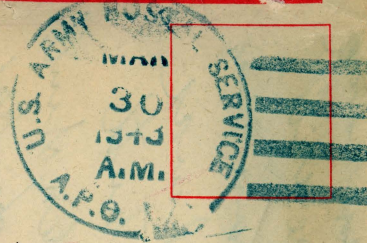

Ann do you know where I am at if you don't know about you asked me in some of your letters just wait a couple of place where you think I am at on then maybe I can let you know, Ann this is about all for this time so until the next time Good By + may God bless you

With, Love
Leo.

V-Mail Service is available to provide the most expeditious dispatch and reduce the weight of mail to and from the personnel of our Armed Forces outside the continental United States. When addressed to points where micro-film equipment is in operation, a miniature photographic negative of the message will be made and sent by the most expeditious form of transportation available for reproduction and delivery. Messages addressed to or from points where micro-film equipment is not in operation will be transmitted in their original form by the most expeditious means available.

INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) Write the entire message on the other side below the double line. Write plainly.
- (2) Address exactly as you would an ordinary letter, PRINTING the address in the two panels provided.
- (3) Fold according to instructions, seal, and drop in any post office letter drop or street letter box.
- (4) If it is desired to send more than one sheet a separate form must be completed. Enclosures must not be placed in this envelope.
- (5) The original will be destroyed after the corresponding film has been delivered at the destination.
