Dearest Angela:

I got your letter the other day and sure was glad to hear from you, and see were you are still in good health, Ann I also got those two pictures you sent you really have got a nice uniform but I think my uniform is O.K. for me, but I sure would like to give it right back to them and come home to you, Well Ann you asked me what I done with my money well first of all I got I got one $45 bond coming out then I sent $10 some a month then I go to town and time an if I got any money left I ~~try~~ a little on the dice, so there is the hole story, Ann you want me to send you something from over here well I sure don't know what I could send you so how about you telling me what you want and I will get it for you,

Ann how about you sending me one of your big picture you know you said that you were going to send me one, so how about it, Ann Ann you also said that you were out at Billies I guess you all got drunk again "didn't you", so that Bartley girl left Raymond, Well maybe he will wake up Ann to tell you the truth he is the dumbest boy I ever seen, about girls just let a girl look at him and then he thinks that she likes him, but he will find out all about the women after he gets a couple like her.

He ought to be over here I sure could tell him a couple points about girls "you know me don't you Ann" Ann I sure would like to see a white girl again like you.
Ann if & when I do get back you better be ready because I am going to be a hard boy to hold, Well Ann I don't know any more news so I will close with lots of love to you so good Bye and lots of love to you & Aloha to you

Two sheets of paper Sir
As ever Yours
