Dear Angela,

Received your letter yesterday and was really glad to hear from you.

I just got home from school. I've got so much homework, its not even funny.

You don't have to tell me that you still like Coon, because I know you do. Hope you had a nice time with him, as I know you did.

Sure had a swell ride over on the bus Mon. morning. Fought sleep all blessed day, but I didn't care because I really had a swell time. I can't thank you, your mother, Kate, Gary and all the rest for showing me such a good time. Sure hope I get to pay you back real soon. Don't forget to thank them all including yourself.

I got a letter ^{from} Johnny Quinlan yesterday, but I didn't hear from Rip yet. He better ~~answer~~ ^{answer}, or else.

Angela you know Mother & Dad don't like for me to go with Ham anymore, ever since he doesn't come over any more. They don't have anything against ^{him} but you know he my cousin. When I got home Mon. morning they asked me if I was with ^{him}, and I told ^{them} sure. Mother said she wasn't going to let me come down to St. Meinrad anymore if I can't stay away from ^{him} (and I can't stay away from ^{him}). Mother said ~~she~~ ^{they don't} ~~wasn't~~ ^{allowed} ^{him} to come over so I'm not allowed to go down, and mother also knows that his folks don't like it. If I asked ~~him~~^{L. Ham} he says it's not on account of his folks, but I know it is.

So, I don't know what to do, and I hope you know what I mean.

About Sunday night I'd still love to go and maybe I can manage. She could have so much fun. But don't beg my old man to come over ~~there~~ + don't say I said anything about our going. Please don't ~~mention~~ mention my name.

Listen, I've got to stop because I want to mail this letter right away so you will get it before you go home.

I've got to have my Lots of Love red coat cleaned, it's very dirty. Ha, Ha, Saturday night. Daddy

P.S. Excuse writing. I hope you can fish up something, you know. Be sure and call me either way. Here's wishing you a lot of luck
