Dearest Angela,
I got your letter yesterday and sure wanted to hear from you, But Anna I sure don't know of a damn thing to write, Oh yes you said that there was a lot of my last letter cut out. well I sure don't know what I could be writing that is wrong. But they don't care what I think its what they ~~think~~ think what counts. Angela: you said that those picture look like I am in the jungles to tell you the truth its get pretty damn hot down here. You said that you are going to play at the Siberia picnic well now ann you know that is a big place an they just can't take any little band. So now that you did play up there you should feel like you were something big. K.H. Ann you said that you are trying to get a job at Jasper I thought you had a good job. So Martin don't like the Army life well he just ain't used to it yet. he will like it after he has been in the Army a long as I have. Well this is about all I know for now. So good by + lots of love to you Good By now

As ever yours
Leo.
