

Stringtown Ind.

May 12th, 1865.

Dear Henry:

Your kind favor of the 5th inst - has come safely to hand, and your communication to my parents has also been received. In reply to the latter they desire me to say that - feeling quite sanguine of your succeeding in the profession you have chosen, and having entire confidence in you as an upright, - honorable man, they have no disposition to interpose any obstacles to what we may deem a furtherance of our mutual interest and happiness.

As I have company today I can not answer your letter now but expect to have that privilege this evening.

Yours ever truly,
Arthur.
