

OWEN

Special Edition

18 Jan. 45

Dear June,

War Dept. sends 1/ Sgt. Owen M. Hamilton back to the states for discharge. When the word first came to him, all he could say was, "I don't believe it."

This will be my last letter and from now on, all my stories will be told in person. There is so much that I want to tell you, I don't know where to begin. I leave here for Nagoya, the 22nd and will wait transportation to the states. That can be any where from 48 hours to 10 days but the main thing is that the ball will have started rolling.

After leaving Nagoya it will take from 9 to 12 days, but after a 21 day cruise, 12 days won't be bad. This time it will really be a pleasure. When I get to the states, (I wont believe it till I see it.) I will try to call if at all possible.

Well June, dont write any more
as the letters probably wont catch up with me for awhile. Hope everyone is well and at least, as happy as I am.

lots of love,
your Brother
Owen.
