Dear June,

Tonight as I am writing, my morale is 100% better as I meet a good looking Wave today. I was down at the beach today minding my own business when 150 Waves drove up so out of that many girls, it would be a poor man that could not get one. This one looked like Dorothy Burchfield and had a swell personality so I was right at home right from the start. She comes from Chicago and just came over yesterday so being an old timer on the island, I was glad to offer my services. I have a date with her for next week so you know the situation is well in hand.

Maybe it is best that I didn't get in O. C. because I know how hard it was to leave home the last time. I just sorry that I couldn't get up a little higher in the army but the army isn't my career anyway. It makes me feel kind of low at times to see some of the fellows at home do so well and me not but I hope you can understand the situation.

How are you making out now? I guess by now you are beginning to get a little anxious to get the baby over with. About what time of the month do you expect it? I guess that Morgan is getting pretty much on edge but it wouldn't be natural if he wouldn't.

Did Harry Davis come in to the army yet?
Keep me posted on the news at home, who's having what and why. Well I've it about time to hit the sack so this is all for tonight. Write when you can and tell Mary hello for me.

Yours Brother
Owen.
