A MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR...

Each year, as the names of individuals and companies are compiled in the Honor Roll of Donors, I am impressed with the broad support which Indiana State University Evansville receives from its community. I suppose this type of support should be no surprise, for the institution itself is a product of community involvement and its growth is a result of community response. In lean economic times, when student financial aid is diminishing, when federal funding of academic research programs is drying up, and when institutions are being asked to do more and better with less and less, financial and volunteer support of the University not only is gratifying, it is more critical than ever before. In this issue of 8600 University Boulevard, we recognize, by way of listings, all the persons who have assisted the University financially in the past year. We salute each and every donor, and express to you as sincerely as possible, how much your support means to the students, faculty and administration of Indiana State University Evansville. Thank you!

8600 University Boulevard is published three times annually by the Office of the President, Indiana State University Evansville, Evansville, Indiana 47712. Please send form 3579 to the office of the President, ISUE, 8600 University Boulevard, Box #6227, Evansville, Indiana 47712.

Work is progressing on the University Home, a project of the ISUE Foundation. The Home, situated on Foundation property adjacent to campus, is expected to be completed in the summer of 1983.

On the Cover...

The Westwood Garden Club Snips the Ribbon on the Campus Herb Garden.

Another project of Westwood Garden Club is adding beauty and character to the Bent Twig Outdoor Education Center. It is the Herb Garden, located between the Virgil Eicher Barn and the Paul Grimes Log Haus, earlier projects of Westwood Garden Club. Club members gathered in the summer, while flowers were in full bloom, to ceremoniously cut the ribbon on the garden, which is surrounded by a picket fence. In the center of the Herb Garden is a memorial to deceased members of the club. The Garden was the setting for two weddings this year—one a re-enactment of a pioneer ceremony during the Cannons and Muskets Freedom Festival event and the other a modern-day “for -real” ceremony.

HONOR ROLL OF DONORS

FOUNDATION ANNUAL FUND DRIVE

Gifts made to the ISUE Foundation are used to provide additional funds for the ever-increasing cost of higher education. Contributions are used for student scholarships, student-faculty research and development projects, equipment, campus promotion and development activities, and for a variety of other needs for which State funds are not available. With the Foundation's support, ISUE will continue to better serve students now and for future generations.

According to the amount of their annual gift, donors may now participate in the Centennial Club, Century Club, Second Century Club, 8600 Club, and President's Council.

Thanks to all donors for participating so generously and for demonstrating their appreciation of the value of public higher education at Indiana State University Evansville. In recognition of their support and loyalty to ISUE, the Foundation is pleased to list the following individuals and businesses on its Honor Roll for 1982-82.

THE CENTENNIAL CLUB. The Centennial Club is named in honor of ISUE's first home. Members of the Club are assisting the University in increasing funds available for faculty development. A contribution of $1.00 per year for each year of the University's existence is the requirement for membership. The amount in the past year was a $16.00 minimum contribution.

VARSITY CLUB

The Indiana State University Evansville Varsity Club was established in 1971 to unite, in an organized effort, friends and alumni of Indiana State University Evansville who wish to express their interest in the University and who have a desire to serve it through their particular interest in campus athletics.

The Varsity Club works to encourage the recruitment of outstanding prospective students who have the ability to contribute to the athletic program. The club also assists athletes who qualify academically for athletic grants-in-aid administered by the Student Financial Aids office in accordance with NCAA Rules.

THE ALUMNI FUND

Each year, volunteers from the ISUE Alumni Association telephone their fellow graduates, seeking contributions which will enable the Alumni Association to assist the University with special projects and provide funds for maintaining the Association. Proceeds are used to support several annual alumni programs and events including the Alumni Scholarship Program, Homecoming, the Alumni Banquet, Teacher Education Breakfast, and New Student Orientation. The ISUE Alumni Association Honor Roll contributors who have paid pledges as of August 13 are:

"This scholarship will insure that I can finish my education...with the state of the economy, I can't afford to work and pay a babysitter...as it is, we barely pay one semester's tuition off before the next one is due. My husband also is a student." Cynthia R. Sprosty, elementary education major, from Evansville, Indiana. Alumni Scholarship Recipient.
