SPRING PRODUCTION STARTS APRIL 19.

TED WENDT, director of theatre and instructor in communications, will direct ISUE's Spring Production, "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," on April 19, 20, 21, 26, 27, and 28, 8:00 p.m., at the ISUE Playhouse.

The play is a musical comedy which was a smash on Broadway in 1962, starring Zero Mostel (who also did the film version). It's filled with songs, dances, slapstick, pretty girls, chase scenes and witty dialogue.

MICHAEL JUDY, ISUE's director of music, clowns and sings his way through the lead role of Pseudolus, chief instigator of the play's mayhem. ISUE students play the other characters: DAVE BUCHANAN as Hero; MIKE WHIPPLE as Senex; RAMONA TAYLOR as Domina; WAYNE ALDRIDGE as Hysterium; HAROLD TEPOOL as Marcus Lycus; BECKI ROSER as Philia; KEM CASE as Erroneous; and JOHN SCHUTZ as Captain Miles Gloriosus. Also in the play are six courtesans and three proteans.

Opening night only, anyone appearing at the Playhouse in a Roman toga will be admitted free.

For reservations, call 464-1734 or 464-1911. General admission is $3.50. ISUE students with ID can get in free. Group rates are available for 10 or more adults for $2.50/ticket and groups of 10 or more high school/college students for $2.00/ticket.

ISUE COMMUNITY FORUM ON GROWTH VS. THE ENVIRONMENT. Everyone is invited to participate in a community forum conducted by ISUE on "Growth and Pollution: Citizens Examine the Tradeoffs." The forum is one in a series to help citizens understand the facts about the many issues involved.

The panel is comprised of George Schnetzke, director of community development for the Chamber of Commerce, ANDREW JORGENSEN, ISUE assistant professor of chemistry, and four mayoral candidates: Randy Shepard, Bradley Tenbarger, Mike Vandever, and Jim Angermeier. Jan Gallo, president of the League of Women Voters, will act as moderator. Following the panel's presentations, the audience will participate in a discussion.

The forum will be held at the ISUE University Conference Center, Room 350 at 7:30 p.m. on April 19. For further information, contact the Office of Continuing Education at 464-1863.

WOMEN AS SEEN THROUGH FILM DISCUSSION SERIES. ISUE is presenting "University Outreach: The Many Images of Women as Seen Through Film," a film/discussion series featuring five films shown at three Southwestern Indiana locations--Boonville, Evansville, and Rockport on five consecutive weeks.

On each occasion a brief introduction to the film will precede the showing. After the film there will be a coffee break and audience discussion. The discussion will be an attempt to understand the roles women chose for themselves as well as those thrust on them by the times and social conventions, and how the film's portrayals reflect society's stereotypes, prejudices, and truths about women. Each week an ISUE faculty member will lead the discussion.

The selection of films include The Inn of The Sixth Happiness, Rachel, Rachel, A Brief Vacation, Mr. Smith Goes to Washington, and Growing Up Female.

The films will be shown at St. Clement's School, 416 E. Sycamore, Boonville on April 16, 23, 30, and May 7 and 14, at 7:00 p.m.; at Culver School, 1301 S. Representatives will be available in both the Student Administrative office and the University Center area.

HUMANITIES FORUM. On Wednesday, April 18, ISUE's Humanities Forum will present a lecture on "Nudging the Creative Muse," by HELEN SANDS, associate professor communications.

According to SANDS, the creative Muse has long been courted by poets, musicians, artists, scientists, and representatives of nearly every other profession. This presentation suggests avenues that one may follow in fresh attempts to court the Muse's favor.

The program will be held at ISUE's University Center, Room 350, at 1:00 p.m. Admission is free and open to the public.

On April 23, the ISUE Readers Theatre will perform for the Humanities Forum at 12:00 noon in the Administration Building, Room 34. Everyone is welcome.
