An ISUE senior, Miss Susan J. Turner, R.R.#7, Evansville, and an ISUE junior, Dale W. Scott, R.R.#3, Newburgh, were named the winners of the coveted All Campus Student Achievement Award in the Honors Day Program at the Evansville Campus May 3, 1973.

Miss Susan J. Turner, daughter of Mrs. Margaret C. Turner and the late James Turner, has served as president of the Student Union Board for two years; serves on the University Center Planning Board; and worked actively as student leader for ISUE Separation Bill in State Legislature. A sociology major, she is a member of the psychology club and the sociology club. Her community activities include volunteer work with C.A.P.E., volunteer work at Evansville State Hospital; and chairman of youth activities of the Ohio River Arts Festival.

A history major, Dale Scott serves as President of the ISUE History Club, junior senator of Student Government Association; vice-president of the junior class; and member of the ISUE President's Council. He was active in organizing letter-writing campaigns to state legislature in favor of the separation bill and the budget increase. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Scott.

Two other top awards, the ISUE Organization Award for academic achievement, awarded to student organization having the highest grade point average, and the ISUE organization award for service, awarded to
