FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 12, 1972

An Indiana State University Evansville general business major, Miss Madonna Jo Dietsch, has been named the recipient of the Pamela Grubb Memorial Scholarship. The scholarship is provided by Mr. and Mrs. Rayburn Grubb of R. R. #4, Evansville, in conjunction with Whirlpool Corporation, who have established the scholarship in memory of their daughter Pamela, who died while a student at ISUE.

Miss Dietsch, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dietsch of R. R. #7, Evansville, is a junior at ISUE who hopes to go into interior decorating. At present she is working as a student assistant in the University Library. The scholarship covers full tuition for the 1972-73 academic year.
