USI schedule

November 1995

Thursday, November 2

USI Board of Trustees - The USI Board of Trustees will hold the November meeting at 1:30 p.m. in the University Center.

(For information, contact Kathy Funke, News and Information Services director, 812/465-7050.)

Monday, November 6-

Friday, November 17

Pre-registration for spring 1996 - call Enrollment Services, 812/464-1765 for information

Monday, November 6

ACS satellite program - The Indiana/Kentucky Border Chapter, American Chemical

Society, will sponsor local airing of the ACS satellite program, "Teaching Chemistry, 1995: Current Approaches to the Fundamentals," which examines how environmental issues get students to connect with science. The program will be held from 5 to 7 p.m. in the University Conference Center. It is open to the public; there is a $30 registration fee.

(For information, contact Dr. Marie G. Hankins, chair of the USI Physical Sciences Department, 812/464-1716.)

Tuesday, November 7

Fall film series - Inherit the Wind (1960)
Director: Stanley Kramer; cast: Spencer Tracy, Fredric March, Gene Kelly. Excellent performances abound in this fictionalization of the famous "Scopes Monkey Trial" that pitted Darwin's theories of evolution against the accepted text of religion.

(The movies are shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free, open to public. For information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.)

Thursday, November 9

Ozone discussion - Chemquery — which is made up of chemists, a physicist, environmental toxicologist, physician, and others — has re-established itself to investigate the scientific aspects and implications of ozone attainment/nonattainment in this area. Dr. Howard E. Dunn, USI professor of chemistry, said the discussion at 7 p.m. in Forum II of the Wright Administration Building will deal with health effects and with documents that have been submitted to the federal Environmental Protection Agency regarding Evansville area attainment. The program is sponsored by the USI Science and Ecology Club.

(For information, contact Dr. Dunn, 812/464-1715.)

Thursday, November 9

Sydney Berger Lecture - Dr. Celia Morris, author and freelance writer from Washington, D.C., will deliver the 1995 Sydney Berger Lecture at 7 p.m. in Forum I, Wright Administration Building. In "Race, Sex and Power: the Legacy of Fanny Wright," she will focus on how the ideas of one of the 19th century's most controversial women activists remain relevant to contemporary issues of race and gender. A reception will follow outside of Forum I; the lecture and reception are free and open to the public. The Berger Lecture was established in 1989 to encourage public discussion of social and religious issues at the University where the late Mr. Berger, an Evansville attorney, taught constitutional law for 20 years.

(For information, contact Kathy Funke, News and Information Services director, 812/465-7050.)

Friday, November 10
