

INDIANA STATE University Notes EVANSVILLE CAMPUS

PHILHARMONIC SEASON OPENS SATURDAY. The Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra will open its season Saturday, September 18, 1976 at Vanderburgh Auditorium with a program of "Mostly Mozart" featuring Sherry Sylar, oboe; Laurence Shapiro, violin; and Joel Lipton, viola. Selected themes will include Haydn: Concerto for Oboe and Strings in C; and Mozart: Sinfonia Concertante for violin and viola, and Symphony No. 41 in C, "Jupiter". Maestro Minas Christian will conduct the symphony.

Mr. Christian has built the Evansville Philharmonic into a superb orchestra since coming to the city in 1953. Under his direction, the Philharmonic has grown progressively to become a metropolitan orchestra with superb quality and high professional standards. The Orchestra now presents eight Subscription Concerts, two Pop Concerts, six Youth Concerts, the Tri-State Youth Concert, 12 Little Symphony performances and 55 performances of the Evansville String Quartet and the Philharmonic Woodwind Quintet.

Subscription series tickets are still available for the 1976-77 season. A wide variety of music and guest artists will be participating. Programs include Gary Graffman, famed concert pianist; the Cincinnati Ballet Co.; Pierre Fournier, cellist; Silvia Marcovici, Romanian violinist; the Harvard Trio; and others.

Tickets orders may be obtained from and sent directly to DANIEL SCAVONE, Associate Professor of History, and Ticket Committee and Arts Council member for the Evansville Philharmonic. DR. SCAVONE will secure the best seats available in the area you request. For further information, contact DR. SCAVONE, extension 225.

CAMPUS MINISTRY PROGRAM TODAY. An "Anthropological Look at Man" will be presented by Dr. David Kissel today from 12 noon to 1:00 p.m. in the Rare Books Room of the library. Dr. Kissel is campus minister at the University of Evansville and director of Newman Center. The public is invited to attend the program. The Evansville Campus Ministry is sponsoring the speaker.

WOMEN'S TENNIS INTRODUCED AT ISUE, Women's intercollegiate tennis made its initial appearance at Indiana State University Evansville on Saturday, September 11. At the same time, RUTH SCHWENK experienced her coaching debut as a member of the Eagles athletic staff. She directed her team as ISUE competed against Kentucky Wesleyan, winning 6-3, and St. Mary of the Woods, winning 5-4. The University of Evansville played host to the matches held at the Carson Center courts.

Prior to the match COACH SCHWENK expressed eagerness at the seasons beginning: "I'm looking forward to the upcoming opening matches. "I'm anxious to gain some insight into this program and to be able to evaluate some of the skill levels of the present players against intercollegiate competition."

COACH SCHWENK has prepared a roster of seven players for the fall tennis season. They are LISA STEVENSON, PHYLLIS WELLS, NANCY WAGNER, DEBBIE SCHUTTE, JO PATTERSON, DEBBIE TEER, AND CONNIE SIMPSON. The following is a schedule of the team's 1976 matches.

ISUE BASEBALL SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED. Indiana State University Evansville has announced a 12 game abbreviated fall baseball schedule which began with a game pitting the Eagles against Vincennes University at ISUE on Saturday, September 11 with the Eagles losing the first game 8-7 and winning in the second game 3-1. LARRY SHOWN'S 32 man squad met Kentucky Wesleyan on Sunday to win in a double-header 3-0 and 11-5.

Included on the fall schedule are home and away doubleheaders with Vincennes University, Kentucky Wesleyan and Ohio Valley Conference representative Western Kentucky. COACH SHOWN must ready his pitching staff for the mid-September barrage of games. The Eagles will play 12 games within a 15-day span.

COACH SHOWN has a young squad composed of mostly freshmen and sophomores, but he displays obvious pleasure after viewing the new players he recruited into the program. "We have a lot of new people this year and I'm expecting a degree of improvement in our record," comments the ISUE manager. "This fall, I want to get as much accomplished as possible in order to shorten the amount of work needed in the spring."
