FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION INVITED TO ALUMNI RECEPTION. On Thursday, October 25, the ISUE Alumni Association with the Division of Education and the ISUE Foundation, will host a special reception and buffet breakfast for ISUE teaching alumni, elementary and secondary education principals, public school administrators, and ISUE faculty and administrators.

The schedule includes coffee at 7:15 a.m., breakfast at 7:30 a.m., and a brief program at 8:00 a.m., all held in the U.C. dining room. DR. DAVID RICE, president of campus; Elizabeth Culiver, president of Kappa Delta Pi; WAYNE BOULTINGHOUSE, ISUE athletic director; and the Mid-America Singers will participate in the program. At 8:30 a.m., there will be opportunities to tour the University Center and/or other places of interest on campus.

Spouses, friends or guests are invited, too. The Alumni Affairs office will accept R.S.V.P.s by October 22. For further information, contact the ISUE Office of Alumni Affairs at extension 1865.

NATIONAL DENTAL ASSISTANT RECOGNITION WEEK, OCTOBER 21 - 27. Dental assistants who not only assist the dentist at chairside, but also do laboratory work and reception work, will be honored nationally next week, October 21 through 27.

ISUE's first dental assistant class graduated in 1972. ISUE's program, accredited by the American Dental Association, is a one-year certificate program with an optional two-year associate degree. At the end of one year, students may take a national certification exam. SUZANNE SCHNACKE, supervisor and instructor in dental assisting, says jobs are plentiful. "I get more calls than I have students." Currently, 13 students are enrolled.

For further information, contact SUZANNE SCHNACKE, at extension 1708.

HEW SECRETARY TO SPEAK IN EVANSVILLE. Patricia Harris, Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, will be the keynote speaker at the Teachers Conference on Instruction for the Indiana State Teachers Association, southwest division.

Faculty are invited to attend the entire conference on October 25 and 26. The general session will begin 10:30 a.m., Thursday at Central High School auditorium. Patricia Harris will speak at 11:00 a.m.

For further information concerning the conference schedule, contact Norma Kacen at the Evansville Teachers Association at 426-1286.

SECRETARIES CLUB LUNCHEON. The ISUE Secretaries Club will hold their October meeting this Thursday, October 18, from 11:45 to 1:15 in UC351. DR. DANIEL SCAVONE, professor of history, will talk about vampires. Members should bring a lunch or go through the cafeteria line.

OPEN ENROLLMENT FOR BLUE CROSS BLUE SHIELD INSURANCE. The Blue Cross Blue Shield group insurance program at ISUE provides that once each year, during the month of November, an open enrollment period is made available to all employees who have not previously enrolled either themselves or their dependents. Those who wish to take advantage of this opportunity should visit the Personnel Office. Your coverage will become effective November 10, 1979 if you complete the necessary enrollment card and make a cash payment by Friday, October 26, 1979. The cost is $7.94 per month for single coverage or $19.48 per month for family coverage. If you choose to wait and begin payment by payroll deduction, the effective date of your insurance will be December 10, 1979.

SEASON BASKETBALL TICKETS NOW ON SALE. The athletic department is announcing that 79-80 basketball tickets are now on sale for the faculty and staff. The faculty and staff may purchase season tickets at a special rate...two for one or half-price. Season ticket prices are as follows:

Season chairbacks(if available).....$35.00
Season bench seats.....$20.00

The Eagles are anticipating moving into the new HPER Complex in January. Once the change is made more chairback seats will be available.

For more information contact the athletic department at extension 1846.

FALL FILM SERIES. Free films are shown on Tuesday afternoons at 2:00 and 6:00 p.m. in Room A126. The film for Tuesday, October 23, will be "Young Mr. Lincoln."

HUMANITIES FORUM WILL FOCUS ON ANGEL MOUNDS. On Tuesday, October 23, Doran Cart will highlight North American Indians and Indians of this area in his lecture and slide presentation "Southern Indiana Prehistory with a Focus on Angel Mounds."

The presentation, which will be from 12:30 to 2:00 p.m. in Room A28, will deal directly with the history of this area and Angel Mounds' importance in North American history.

Cart, who is property manager at Angel Mounds, hopes to teach people about those who lived here, their reasons, why they left: "I want to present the truth about the American Indian--what went on here at Angel Mounds, what goes on here today."

All Humanities Forum events are free to the public.

PRINT AND PAINTING SALE AT ISUE. Over 1000 prints and paintings ranging in price from five dollars to five thousand dollars will be on display at the Lakeside Studio Original Prints Exhibit and Sale on Thursday, October 18, at ISUE.

The sale, which will be from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the UC Conference Center, will include original works by old and modern masters, such as Whistler and Goya, contemporary works, and woodcuts.

SHEPARD & VANDEVEER TO SPEAK ON ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES. Mayoral candidates Randy Shepard and Mike Vandever, and all city council candidates will answer questions on environmental issues on Friday, October 19, at 7:30 p.m.

The program is sponsored by the Audubon Evansville Chapter, Evansville Paddlewheel, Southern Indiana Environmental Political Action Coalition, and Southwest Indiana Civil Liberties Union. It will be held in Room A126.
