The University Notes can be found on USI BBS under information center: campus information: campus events.

Homecoming

The Activities Programming Board's "Battle of the Wits" will open campus-wide Homecoming events which everyone is invited to attend. The "Battle" — a Family Feud-type program — will be held from 9 to 11 p.m. Monday, February 5, in Mitchell Auditorium. Contestants are asked to wear circus-theme costumes.

APB is asking faculty and staff to put together teams for the contest. Call extension 1872 to sign on.

Voting for the Homecoming King and Queen will continue through the week — 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Monday-Friday in the Eagle's Nest, and 4:30-6:30 p.m. Monday-Thursday in the Orr Center atrium. The coronation will be at half-time of the men's basketball game Saturday night, February 10.

The USI Screaming Eagles will play Saint Joseph's, the women at 5:30 p.m. and the men at 7:30 p.m. February 10. The annual Alumni Homecoming Game will be at 3 p.m. in the PAC, and the alumni Homecoming reception will follow the men's game.

The Student Alumni Association will make use of an unusual three-game week to conduct a "Spirit Contest." There will be a banner contest during the USI/Bellarmino doubleheader Tuesday, February 6, and a face-painting contest at the USI/Wisconsin-Parkside doubleheader on Thursday, February 8. Winners will be announced at the Homecoming game.

APB also is sponsoring a juggler, Mark

Nizer, who will perform at 9 p.m. Wednesday, February 7, in Mitchell Auditorium. He will be preceded at 8 p.m. by a USI student juggling contest.

Royalty also will be crowned Friday night, February 9, at the Delta Zeta "King of Hearts" dance, 8 p.m.-12 midnight in the University Conference Center. Student groups may nominate a king candidate and the winner will be the one who raises the most money in the Delta Zeta benefit for the speech and hearing impaired.

New curricular certificate program

Certificate Program in Japanese - 18 hrs.; after enrolling for three years (six semesters) of Japanese at USI, students will receive a certificate stating they have successfully completed the intermediate level of Japanese.

Lincoln auditions:

Open auditions for the outdoor musicals Young Abe Lincoln and Big River will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday, February 2, in Forum I at USI. Those wanting to audition should bring a tape deck with their taped music, or sheet music; an accompanist will be provided. The search is for a young Abe, age 10-13 and 5'3" or under; a young Sarah Lincoln, age 10-15, petite, 5'5" or under, and slender; and for men and women between ages 20 and 60-plus with chorus-quality voices.

Interviews also will be conducted for non-acting positions — technical, box office, concessions, and others. Those interested should bring a resume. For information or alternate dates, call extension 1668. (Other auditions/interviews will be held February 3 at Jasper and Dale, Indiana.)

All actors should be available for rehearsals beginning June 6. Young Abe Lincoln will open June 21 and Big River will open July 11, with the two then alternating until the season ends August 17. Both productions will be directed by Mr. Elliot Wasserman, assistant professor of theatre, and are produced by USI in cooperation with the Indiana Department of Natural Resources.

New Harmony Gallery:

A two-person exhibition by Ms. Ana England and Ms. Cheonae Kim will be the next featured exhibition at the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art, opening with a free public reception for the artists at 1 p.m. Sunday, February 4. The exhibition will continued through March 20.

Both artists investigate individual concerns about the interpretation of traditional language and alphabet. Ms. England develops large sculptural installations that explore the alphabet and symbols of many cultures. Ms. Kim develops large, formal, abstract grid paintings based on the Korean language and alphabet.
