ALUMNI RIVER CRUISE AUGUST 16. The USI Alumni Association will hold its annual "Rollin' Down the River" cruise on the Party Barge on Saturday, August 16. Boarding will begin at 7:30 p.m. at Marina Pointe and the barge will leave on a three-hour cruise at 8 p.m. Guests will rock-and-roll to the tunes of the '60s and '70s, while hors d'oeuvres, liquid refreshments, and door prizes will add to the fun. Tickets are $15 per person and will help the USI Alumni Association with its goal of adding a scholarship a year to the 21 scholarships and grants now being presented to deserving USI students. Contact Ms. Nancy Allen in the USI Alumni and Development Office, extension 1918, to purchase tickets.

NEW START SEMINAR SLATED. A New Start Seminar will be held from 9 to 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, August 9, in the University Center, sponsored by the USI Admissions Office for the benefit of adults interested in enrolling in college courses in order to change careers or take on new challenges. The topics to be covered are Career Inventory, Program Options, Credit by Exam, Financial Aid, and Stress and Anxiety. The seminar is free, but reservations are requested; child care will be provided. Call the Admissions Office, extension 1765, for information or reservations.

DULCIMER WORKSHOP AT NEW HARMONY. Historic New Harmony, Inc., will sponsor a Dulcimer Beginners Workshop and Clinic from 12 noon to 4 p.m. Saturday, August 16, at the Atheneum. Mr. Larry Brenner of Evansville will be the instructor. The registration fee is $15 and the class will be limited to 10 persons. The deadline to register is Thursday, August 14; call the Historic New Harmony office, 464-9595.

"CLAY TODAY," USI PAINTERS TO BE AT GALLERY. The New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art will present "Clay Today," which explores ceramics in a sculptural context rather than its traditional use as a utilitarian medium, and the varied works of six USI student artists during August. The ceramics exhibition involves:

Ms. Melissa Wright Pokorny, a recent graduate of the University of Southern Illinois at Edwardsville who now is studying for her MFA with Mr. Robert Arneson, internationally known sculptor, at the University of California at Davis. Her work is figurative, the content dealing with the loneliness and separation of individuals.

Mr. Mark Richardson, Massachusetts native and graduate of Indiana University who has taught ceramics at Herron School of Art since 1980 and has been the recipient of many awards from the Indiana Arts Commission. His slip cast sculpture combines forms and color to create a streamlined, space-age sculpture.

Mr. Walter Zurko, Montana native who studied at the University of Wisconsin and received his MFA from SIU-E. He has taught at Wooster College in Ohio since 1981 and is affiliated with Martha Schneider Gallery in Chicago and Pro-Art in St. Louis. His sculptures conjure thoughts of primitive and effigy figures.

Ms. Anne Meszko, Michigan native who studied at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. She taught high school art several years in St. Louis and now is coordinator of the Chicago International New Art Forms Exposition and director of communications for Chicago Art Expo at Navy Pier. Her "Trophy Heads" reflect her respect for nature and disdain for the needless killing of animals for sport.

The USI 400 Club of Painters -- senior and graduate student artists who have reached the highest level of study at USI -- will be featured in a separate exhibition in the Greenroom Restaurant, adjacent to the gallery. They include Mr. Dan Adams, Ms. Donna Eaton, Ms. Debbie Leth, Mr. Tom Martin, Mr. Dan Sanders, Ms. Penny Shelton, and Mr. Frank West.

A public reception will be held from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday, August 10, at the gallery, honoring artists from both exhibitions. The gallery, supported in part by the Indiana Arts Commission and National Endowment for the Arts, is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday and 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday; it is closed on Mondays.

The "Musical Ceramic Sculpture" of Mr. Brian Ransom of Claremont, California, remains on display at the gallery through Thursday, July 31.

USI BOOTH AT SCOTT-VANDERBURGH FAIR. There will be a USI booth at the Scott-Vanderburgh County Fair, which runs through Saturday, August 2. USI representatives -- staff and volunteers from the Admissions Office -- will be at the booth from 12 noon to closing daily, and invite all members of the University community to stop by.

COMPUTER COST REDUCED. IBM has announced that prices on the PC computer have been reduced, effective July 11 through December 31, 1986. The price for Model 5150-166 with green monochrome display, 256K memory, one disk drive, display and printer adapter, keyboard, and DOS 3.1, is $1,010. The same equipment with two disk drives -- Model 5150-176 -- is $1,060. Also available is Model 5150-176 with color display, 256K memory, two disk drives, color/graphic monitor adapter, and DOS 3.1 for $1,482. Orders may be placed through the USI Purchasing Office.

RESEARCH SHORTCUTS. Database searching is available through USI Library Services. Anyone wishing to initiate a search should discuss the topic with either Ms. Ruth Hahn, reader services librarian, extension 1912, or Ms. Dolores Hawn, reference librarian, extension 1920. Charges will vary depending on the database searched. Payment may be made by personal check or by internal charge authorization form. Contact Ms. Hahn or Ms. Hawn for additional information.

SUMMER FESTIVALS. Among summer festivals being held throughout Indiana are the following events now on the schedule for southwest Indiana:

NEW HARMONY FESTIVAL OF MUSIC -- "Musical Fantasy," the ninth annual festival, will continue through Friday, August 1. Tickets -- $7 for adults, $6 for students and senior citizens for most programs; $5 for the grand finale -- may be obtained by calling (812) 682-3395. All unsold tickets will be sold at the door 30 minutes before each concert. The remaining programs will include:

Mr. Clipper Erickson, pianist and 1985 Beethoven Foundation Fellow, 8 p.m. Wednesday, July 30, Thrall's Opera House.

University of Evansville Children's Choir, free noon concert Thursday, July 31, Thrall's Opera House.

Ensemble Chanterelle, 8 p.m. Thursday, July 31, Thrall's Opera House; winner of the Concert Artists Guild Award in 1984, the ensemble presents a unique blend of voice and instruments ranging from the Middle Ages to the present. Ensemble members will be guests at a reception at the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art following the program.

Grand finale concert at 8 p.m. Friday, August 1, Roofless Church; the Evansville Symphonic Band and a 100-voice chorus will celebrate the American heritage, including Randall Thompson's "Testament of Freedom," in a salute to the rededication of the Statue of Liberty.
