VARSITY CLUB SUMMER STAG. The ISUE Varsity Club will hold a Summer Stag on Monday, June 23, beginning at 6:00 p.m. A dinner is planned with a program following, which includes a brief summary of the athletic recruiting program by Wayne Boultinghouse, Athletic Director and Basketball Coach, and some rousing games of horseshoes.

The public is invited to this Summer Stag. Varsity members, bring a guest along. Tickets are $5.00 if purchased in advance from the Athletics Dept. or any Varsity Club member on campus, or $6.00 if purchased at the door.

The Varsity Club Summer Stag will be held at Hilltop Grove, located on Detroy Road north of and just off of Hwy. 460.

CHEERLEADING CAMP SUCCESSFUL. The ISUE Cheerleading Camp, held at Central Arena last week, was a successful undertaking with approximately 75 girls participating. On the final day of the camp, a cheerleading competition was held on the ISUE Campus lawn with trophies presented to the winners. The girls were judged in four age groups on appearance, general impression, movement, skills and use of jumps, tumbling and splits, enthusiasm, difficulty of cheer, and various other points.

Billie Boultinghouse, Harrison High School physical education instructor and gymnastics coach, was coordinator and instructor of the ISUE Cheerleading Camp. Winners of last Friday's event were pictured in the June 15 edition of the Evansville Sunday Courier & Press.

ISUE PROFESSOR RECUPERATING AFTER SURGERY. J. Maxwell Davis, Associate Professor of Life Science and Teachers Certification Advisor, is in the cardiac unit of the Cleveland Clinic following open heart surgery performed on June 11. As of the last report, Mr. Davis is recuperating very well and is now able to be up and moving about his room. He loves cards and would appreciate hearing from his many friends at ISUE. Address mail to:
