Two two-week classes for competitive swimmers will be offered at the University of Southern Indiana in late July and early August. Swimmers will learn the four competitive strokes -- freestyle, backstroke, breaststroke, and butterfly -- as well as starts and turns.

The classes will meet from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. Monday through Friday, starting July 20 and August 3. The registration fee is $35. Call the USI Office of Continuing Education, (812) 464-1863, for information or to register.
