Openings still are available in two University of Southern Indiana courses designed to help business and professional people improve their communication skills through improved writing and grammar.

The one-day writing course will be held Thursday, November 12. Participants are urged to submit two samples of their business writing when they register; the fee is $80. The three-hour grammar brush-up will be held Tuesday, November 17; the fee is $40.

Call the USI Office of Continuing Education, (812) 464-1863, for information or to register.
