INDIANA NEWMAN STUDENT CONFERENCE. The Indiana Newman Student Conference, sponsored jointly by Campus Ministry at ISUE and UE, will be held Friday and Saturday, October 6 and 7 on the two campuses.

The two-day workshop on personal growth will revolve around the theme "Seeking Success in Life" and feature Father Bob Kress, Professor at UE, as keynote speaker. Kress holds a doctorate in theology and masters degrees in philosophy and education. He studied at St. Meinrad Seminary, Notre Dame University, Princeton University, Brown University, and at Innsbruck, Germany Paris, France and Rome, Italy. Kress, the author of four books and over eighty articles, is currently writing three books.

Registration takes place Friday, October 6 on the UE campus with the workshops being held Saturday, October 7 on the ISUE campus. Three major workshops have been scheduled dealing with eight personal growth topics. DR. HELEN SANDS, ISUE Associate Professor of Communications, will lead a workshop on communications entitled "Are You Really Coming Across." Helping coordinate the conference are FATHER BERNARD LUTZ and SISTER SHEILA GRIFFIN of the ISUE Campus Ministry.

Contact the Office of Campus Ministry, extension 1810, for a complete schedule of events.

UNIVERSITY EXHIBITS. Through its several display cases, Library Services attempts to inform the University community and visitors to our campus about the many resources and services of ISUE. Among the topics that are or will be featured on display: Main Floor-- Writing Workshop, Math Clinic, Cooperative Education, Variety Pack, The U.S. Constitution and related objects, and Employ the Handicapped Week; Upper Level-- Russian display (newspapers, coins, chess set, and other items of interest courtesy of DR. DONALD PITZER, Professor of History), Humanities Forum (current information on speaker/program), Architecture, and "So You've Got a College Degree, Now What?"

Contact LINDA SKINNER, Learning Resources Center, extension 1828, to schedule display space or suggest possible exhibit subjects.

FLORENCE McCLOSKEY SCHOLARSHIP. A scholarship fund has been established in the memory of Florence McCloskey who passed away this spring in Chattanooga, Tennessee. Mrs. McCloskey served on the faculty of ISUE from 1971-1973 as supervisor and instructor in dental hygiene, and most recently was on the faculty at Chattanooga State Technical College. The Florence McCloskey Scholarship Memorial is a national fund which will be available to dental health students attending any school in the nation. Persons wishing to make a contribution may do so by contacting WANDA HIBBITTS, Associate Professor of Business at ISUE (extension 1785) or by sending the contribution to Dr. Paul Moore, Chattanooga State Technical-College, Chattanooga, Tennessee 37406.

REMINDER: Please turn in your Campus Open House activity sheet to the President's Office by Friday, October 6.

STEAK FRY. The Varsity Club Steak Fry will be held Thursday, October 12 at 6:15 p.m. at Hilltop Grove. Tickets are $7.00 per person and $2,000.00 worth of attendance prizes will be given away that evening. For reservations, contact the ISUE Athletic Office, extension 1846.

TRIPS TO CHICAGO. The ISUE History Club has organized two trips to Chicago's Art Institute to view the "Pompeii 79 A.D." exhibit the weekends of October 13-15 and November 3-5.

The tours will include a visit to the University of Chicago's Oriental Institute Museum of Mesopotamian and Egyptian antiquities. The cost of the tour is $35.00 per person and includes two nights lodging in the Pick-Congress Hotel in Chicago, transportation and entrance fee to the museum.

To introduce the Pompeii exhibition, DR. DANIEL SCAVONE, Professor of History, will present a slide lecture on "Pompeii: Its History and Remains" Thursday, October 12 at 9:00 p.m. in the Administration Building, Room 34.

For reservations and further details, contact DR. DANIEL SCAVONE, Professor of History, extension 1725.

SAM'S COOKOUT. Once again, Big Sam's Cookout will be held Friday, October 6 from 11:00 a.m.-1:30 p.m. in the Dining Room. The price of $2.99 includes a steak, baked potato, tossed salad and drink.

SPRING FIELD TRIP TO GERMANY. The ISUE German Club is planning a spring field trip to Munich, Germany April 12-April 22 during Easter Break and has opened the trip to the ISUE community.

According to club sponsor FREDERICKA WARD, Instructor in German, the group will fly from Chicago to Luxembourg City then travel by bus to the fourteenth century university city of Heidelberg, spend seven days in Munich adding a visit to Rothenburg ob der Tauber, a town that has remained virtually unchanged since the early middle ages.

Some of the tour highlights include excursions to seven of the world's most famous breweries and visits to three of the world's most outstanding art museums. Other attractions in Munich include a German history museum, a marionette museum, and a tour to the palace of the former royal family of Bavaria which includes a display of the crown jewels. Organized and impromptu side trips into the Bavarian countryside will take the group to the top of Germany's tallest mountain by cable car, to Oberammergau's village of wood carvers, to the fairy-tale castle of Neuschwanstein, and to the "Sound of Music" setting in Salzburg, Austria.

The group will depart from Chicago on the Thursday before Easter, April 12, and return the Sunday following Easter, April 22. Student participants will be excused from classes providing required work is made up. Contact FREDERICKA WARD, Instructor in German, extension 1738, for additional details.

SPECIAL COLLECTION WORKS EXHIBITED. ISUE is lending two works of art by Jacob Maentel from the Cranford Price Collection to be exhibited at the Evansville Museum of Arts and Sciences October 10-23.

The two works of art are "Man Seated at Desk," a watercolor, and "Man Seated At Desk," a charcoal drawing.

ISUE is pleased to contribute to the success of the re-dedication exhibition at the museum.

HUMANITIES FORUM. The ISUE Humanities Forum will present "From Suffering to Suffrage," an ISU Listener's Theatre presentation Tuesday, October 10 at 11:00 a.m. in the University Center, Room 350.

The public is invited to attend. Contact the Division of Humanities, extension 1734, for additional information.

SUB PRESENTATION. The Student Union Board will present "The Silver Stars Steel Orchestra" Wednesday, October 11 from 10:45-11:45 a.m. and 12:00 noon-1:00 p.m. on the University Center Mall.

Steel band music is a 35 year old Trinidadian innovation in which 55 gallon oil drums are fashioned into musical instruments-pans. Under the leadership of Kelvin Griffith, the Silver Stars are capable of producing sounds as rich and varied as any conventional instrumentalists.

In addition to the drums, there is a rhythm section of congas, drum kit and a person on irons, and a set of auto brake drums played with screw drivers.

The concert is free and open to the public. In case of rain, the orchestra will perform at 8:00 p.m. in the Administration Building, Room 126.
