

USI SCHEDULE

BALANCE OF MAY

CONTACT: Sherrianne Standley, University Relations

(812) 464-1902

Monday, May 15 -- Registration for Intersession classes. Classes will begin Tuesday, May 16, and end Friday, June 9.

(For information, contact the Admissions Office, [812] 464-1765.)

Tuesday, May 16 -- Two representatives from the Saturn Corporation GMC plant -- Jack O'Toole, union vice president, and Charles "Chuck" Stridde, human resource advisor -- will discuss the techniques of company-union involvement in the innovative plant nearing completion at Spring Hill, Tennessee. The Southern Indiana Labor-Management Education Forum program will be held from 8 to 11:30 a.m. in the University Center, extended a half hour by request of past participants to allow more time for questions.

(For information, contact Tim Mahoney, coordinator of the Southern Indiana Labor-Management Education Forum, [812] 464-1863.)

Wednesday, May 17 -- A Press Party will be held at 5 p.m. in Murphy Auditorium, introducing the 1989 New Harmony Theatre season which opens with "Foxfire" on Friday, June 9, in the auditorium.

(For information, contact Dr. James R. Blevins, chairman of the School of Liberal Arts, [812] 465-1630.)

(MORE)

University of Southern Indiana

8600 University Boulevard • Evansville, Indiana 47712

Sunday-Saturday, -- May 21-27 The Ropewalk Writers' Retreat in Historic New Harmony will feature three free programs for the public -- teacher-author John Hawkes reading from his works of fiction at 7 p.m. Sunday in The Atheneum; author Joy Williams reading from her works of fiction at 7 p.m. Wednesday in Murphy Auditorium; and poet-author Philip Levine reading from his poetry at 6:30 p.m. Friday in The Atheneum. The retreat is sponsored by the USI English Department and Office of Continuing Education and has been underwritten partially by a Susan R. Enlow grant and the Robert Lee Blaffer Trust.

(For information, contact the USI English Department, [812] 464-1735, or the Office of Continuing Education, 464-1863.)

MONDAY, MAY 29 — MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE; UNIVERSITY CLOSED

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES

Tuesday, May 16 - Management Diagnostic Center
Thursday, May 18 - Planning and Organizing Your Time
Friday, May 19 - Problem Solving and Decision Making
Saturday, May 20 - Sailing School
Wednesday, May 24 - Developing Leadership and Skills, Jasper

(For information or to register, contact the Office of Continuing Education, [812] 464-1863.)