

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/465-1956

USI Schedule March 1999

Monday, March 1

Board of Trustees meeting - 8 a.m. breakfast, 8:30 a.m. Executive session to discuss personnel, 9 a.m. Committee meetings, 10 a.m. Regular board meeting, 11:45 a.m. Presidential Scholar and Donor Luncheon. All in UC, University suite and Carter Hall ABC.

Monday, March 1 - Wednesday, March 3

Historic Southern Indiana and The Indiana State Museum and Historic Sites will hold the eighth annual interpreters workshop, "Creative Interpretations: Illuminating Our Past." The event will be held at the Spring Mill State Park Inn in Mitchell, Indiana.

Tuesday, March 2

Visiting poet - poet and publisher Richard Newman will read from his work at 7 p.m. in Carter Hall. The event is free and open to the public.

USI Spring Film Series - Holiday (1938, 93 min.); directed by George Cukor; starring Cary Grant and Katherine Hepburn. A non-conformist, uncomfortable with his fiancée's stuffy family, finds love and understanding with his future sister-in-law; 1:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. in Forum I. Mr. Eric Braysmith, lecturer in English, will lead a discussion immediately following the film. USI films are free and open to the public.

Tuesday, March 2 - Wednesday, March 3

Walt Disney World officials will present an informative program on summer and fall internship positions at Disney World in Orlando, Florida. The program will be held at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, March 2, in Mitchell Auditorium. Following the presentation, students may schedule interviews with the officials to be held Wednesday, March 3.

Wednesday, March 3

Daniel Hermann is featured Alumni-in-Residence - sponsored by the School of Business, Mr. Daniel S. Hermann '79, president of Black Beauty Coal Company, will present the spring Alumni-in-Residence lecture "Succeeding in a Declining Industry - Is it Luck?" The lecture will be held at 11 a.m. in Carter Hall. The lecture is free and open to the public. Hermann will meet with business students, faculty, and administrators in other sessions throughout the day.

Monday - Friday, March 8 - 13

University closed for spring recess

Tuesday, March 16

USI Spring Film Series - Gentleman Prefer Blondes (1953, 91 min.); directed by Howard Hawks; starring Marilyn Monroe, Jane Russell, and Charles Coburn; two vacationing show girls lead men on a merry chase. One is out for money, and the other is looking for love; 1:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. in Forum I. USI films are free and open to the public. Mr. Eric Braysmith, lecturer in English, will lead a discussion immediately following the film.

Wednesday, March 17

A panel discussion on various topics of childhood will be held from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m. in Mitchell Auditorium. This event is free and open to the public. This discussion is a preliminary introduction to Dr. William A. Corsaro's lecture on March 18. Panelists Dr. John Gottcent, professor of English, John Gibson, instructor in English, Maggie Felton, instructor in psychology, Dr. Jane Meyer, associate professor of education, and Dr. Jonathon Epstein, associate professor of sociology, will discuss topics concerning religious shaping, the child in literature, the child as a worker, and early education for children. Dr. Stephen Zehr, chair of the Sociology Department and associate professor of sociology, will serve as moderator.

Thursday, March 18

Liberal Arts Distinguished Lecture Series - Dr. William A. Corsaro, the Robert H. Shaffer Class of 1967 Endowed Professor of Sociology at Indiana University, will lecture on "The Future of Childhood" at 7:30 p.m. in Mitchell Auditorium.

Friday, March 19

Academic Bowl - 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 in Carter Hall. Foreign language students from local and area high schools will compete German, French and Spanish. USI faculty and foreign language students will conduct the competition. There also will be a song competition which must include a cultural element.

Saturday, March 20

USI students named academic all stars; will participate in Honor Student Symposium - Thirty USI students have been named academic all stars and will participate in the 16th annual Honor Student Symposium from 8:30 a.m. to noon on Saturday, March 20, in the University Conference Center. Faculty nominated students based on grade-point average (GPA) and academic achievement (this year's all stars have a GPA of 3.5 or above).

USI singers and band to present Spring Show '99

The USI Mid-America Singers and Band will present their Spring Show '99 at 7 p.m. in Forum I located in the Wright Administration Building.

Monday, March 22

Viruses and asthma - a lecture by Dr. David Proud, professor of medicine at Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, 7:30 p.m. in Mitchell Auditorium.

Artist lecture - Tennessee-based furniture maker and sculptor Craig Nutt will present a slide lecture at 7:30 p.m. in Carter Hall. The lecture is free and open to the public.

Tuesday, March 23 and Wednesday, March 24

Artist demonstration - Craig Nutt will demonstrate furniture making on a work in progress from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Technology Building, room 109. The demonstration is free and open to the public.

Monday - Thursday, March 22 - 25

Honors Week - Students in each academic field will be recognized for their academic achievements. All sessions will be held in Mitchell Auditorium.

Monday, March 22 - School of Liberal Arts, 4 p.m.

Tuesday, March 23 - School of Nursing and Health Professions, 4 p.m.

Wednesday, March 24 - Pott School of Science and Engineering Technology, 4 p.m.

Thursday, March 25 - Bower-Suhrheinrich School of Education and Human Services, 1 p.m.

Thursday, March 25 - School of Business, 4 p.m.

Friday, March 26 and Saturday, March 27

USI Spring Film Series: - West Side Story (1961, 152 min.); directed by Jerome Robbins and Robert Wise; starring Natalie Wood, Russ Tamblyn, and Rita Moreno; two teenagers fall in love despite the tensions between their culturally different families; 7:30 p.m. in Forum I. USI films are free and open to the public. Mr. Eric Braysmith, lecturer in English, will lead a discussion immediately following the film.

Saturday, March 27

Southern Hospitality Day - the third of four spring visitor days on campus. Sponsored by the Office of Admission, prospective students and parents are given information about USI and its programs, a campus tour, and a chance to meet current students. The program begins at 9 a.m. in Mitchell Auditorium.

Sunday, March 28

Golden Age of the Golden Troupe: An American Theatrical Family - Historic New Harmony will sponsor an opening reception for the exhibit "The Golden Age of the Golden Troupe: An American Theatrical Family" from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. at Thrall's Opera House located at 612 Church Street in New Harmony. Participants will tour the exhibit following the reception. The event is free and open to the public.

During the reception, Pamela Allen Larson, a theatre artist and educator specializing in the recreation of people and entertainment from the past, will present an interactive program reviving 19th century thespian arts similar to those used by the Golden Family. Ms. Larson will use a number of props to demonstrate 19th century theatre and focus on some of the Golden family plays. There will be a $3 charge for this program.

Tuesday, March 30

USI Spring Film Series: - Playtime (1967, 116 min.); directed by Jacques Tati; starring Jacques Tati; Hulot, a bemused Frenchman, tries to keep an appointment in a cold, unfeeling city of glass and steel skyscrapers; 1:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. in Forum I. USI films are free and open to the public. Mr. Eric Braysmith, lecturer in English, will lead a discussion immediately following the film.

Social Security Administration all-campus forum - University faculty and students who are participating in the "Americans Discuss Social Security" program will present their research and explore areas of agreement and disagreement at 10:45 in Carter Hall. This program is free and open to the University community. Their results will be provided to our nation's legislators.