

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Kathy Will, Office of the President
(812) 426-1251, Ext. 256

April 2, 1973

The Secretaries of Indiana State University Evansville will have their third annual card party in the Forum Room on the campus on April 11, 1973, at 7:30 p.m. The secretarial organization, composed of full-time ISUE secretaries, will donate card party proceeds to the club's scholarship program. Giving a scholarship award each year to an ISUE secretarial student is one of the primary functions of the organization. Entertainment is going to be by the ISUE Mid-America Singers.

The Mid-America Singers of ISUE specialize in colorful show tunes, popular songs and energetic choreography. The performers were first formed in Fall 1969, with eight singers and one accompanist. The talented group now includes fifteen performers and three accompanists. Frequent performers on local stages such as the Executive Inn and fastly becoming a state-wide renowned group, the Mid-America Singers performed for the 1973 Indiana General Assembly in February. On March 14 the Mid-America Singers presented an evening for area high school students during which the Singers performed such all-time favorites as "Old Fashioned Love Song," "When I'm Sixty-Four," "Joy to the World," and "Applause". Two of the Singers, Richard Fein and Daryl Hazel, have been accepted as singers in Opryland, Nashville, Tennessee, for the 1973 summer season. This is the first year the amusement park has auditioned singers from outside the Nashville area and Fein and Hazel are the only students from Indiana to be accepted. The Mid-America Singers, all ISUE students, under the direction of David Deeg, Director and

INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY EVANSVILLE

8600 University Boulevard

Evansville, Indiana 47712

Assistant Professor of Music, recently traveled to Chicago, Illinois, where they were background singers for three records on the Columbia label for a local musical group, Carnival. Any Mid-America Singers performance guarantees an enjoyable evening.

Refreshments and attendance as well as table prizes will spice the card party evening at ISUE. Tickets are available at the University by calling 426-1251, Extension 233. Players are asked to bring their own cards. Assisting the ISUE Secretaries Club will be the Alpha Sigma Alpha, Alpha Omega Psi and Delta Chi Nu-Interest group of Delta Sigma Theta sororities.