UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN AT NEW HIGH. The United Way campaign at USI resulted in new highs for the campus in both participation and total contributions or pledges, according to Dr. Aldo Cardarelli, 1988 chairman. To date, 75 percent of faculty and staff, a 5 percent increase over 1987, contributed or pledged a total of $13,722, a 9.8 percent increase. Three "components" -- the President's Office, University Relations, Student Affairs, Alumni Affairs, Development Office, Personnel, and Publications; Athletics and the School of Education and Human Services; and the School of Nursing and Health Professions -- achieved 100 percent participation. Winners of the Fair Share Givers awards were Mrs. Jennie L. Head, senior secretary in the Admissions Office (support staff); Dr. A. David Austill, assistant professor of business (faculty); and Mrs. Marilyn Schmidt, Placement director (administration). Congratulations to Dr. Cardarelli and the campus committee for a tremendous effort.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Walter Jermakowicz, associate professor of business, is the author of a chapter, "Foundations and Prospects for Soviet Economic Reforms: 1949 to 1987," in a recently published book, Gorbachev's New Thinking: Prospects for Joint Ventures, that is an outgrowth of a 1987 International Institute for Economic Advancement East-West Conference at Middlebury College Center for Economic Studies in Vermont.

Mrs. Diana F. Steele, University Division advisor and instructor in mathematics, participated October 28 in an Indiana Council of Teachers of Mathematics Conference in Indianapolis. Mrs. Steele made a presentation on "Methods of Overcoming Math Anxiety in Elementary and Secondary Schools."

Dr. Donald Wolfe, assistant professor of German, presented a paper entitled "The Poetics of Inclusion: The Outsider in German Expressionism" to the International Conference on the Outsider in Literature, held October 28 in Atlanta. Also attending were Dr. Susan S. Wolfe, assistant professor of German, and Dr. Bodo Plachta, visiting assistant professor in German from the University of Osnabruck in West Germany.

THANK YOU from Mrs. Barbara Brothers, services coordinator, and her family for the expressions of sympathy in the death October 27 of her son, Mr. Stephen E. Brothers.

ASSESSMENT DAY/TRAINING DAY. Tuesday, November 15, is the first Assessment Day. The University will begin assessing the capabilities of this year's new freshman students with an ultimate goal of determining the University's impact upon those students and whether needs are being met. There will be no undergraduate classes, day or evening, on or off campus. All degree-seeking freshmen should report to campus as instructed.

In lieu of regular classes, a campus-wide training day has been organized for University faculty, administrative staff, and clerical/support personnel. The list of classes again is attached at the back of University Notes. You are asked to register via the form included in the listing, with a supervisor's signature required. No registrations will be taken by telephone, but if you have questions, call the Office of Continuing Education, extension 1863.

WANT TO INVEST IN USI? The bond sale to finance USI's new classroom building will make available tax-free municipal bonds in $5,000 denominations, maturing each year from 1990 through 2009. Interested investors may contact Mrs. Patricia Snyder at Smith Barney Harris Upham Company, 425-7221, or Mr. Robert Cordell at Cities Securities Corporation, Indianapolis, 1-800-382-4521.

PRIDE ACADEMIC OLYMPICS AND COLLEGE FAIR. Preliminary rounds of the annual Black Academic Olympics, sponsored by PRIDE (People Responsible for Improving the Development of Education), will be held from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, November 12, in the Science Center and the Administration Building forum rooms. The finals will be a feature of PRIDE's annual College Fair for minority students, which will open at 1 p.m. Saturday, November 19, in the Physical Activities Center. The fair will include an education symposium, career seminar, and financial aid workshop. The olympics finals will be held at 4 p.m. in the forum rooms. The day's events will close with a dinner-dance at which Mr. J. R. Locke, Student Services director at Hampton University in Virginia and founder of PRIDE, will be the keynote speaker.

SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY DAY. The Admissions Office's final fall Southern Hospitality Day will be held Friday, November 11. No reservations are necessary for the program, which begins at 9 a.m. in the University Center. The first hospitality day in October was attended by 75 prospective students and 25 parents, representing 20 high schools and colleges in the Tri-State. For information on Friday's program, contact Ms. Cindy Eskew, Admissions counselor, extension 1765.

NEW START SEMINAR. The fall New Start Seminar for persons interested in changing careers, new challenges, or enrolling in college courses will be held from 9 a.m. to 12 noon Saturday, November 12, at the University Center, sponsored by the Admissions Office. There is no fee, but reservations are requested. Call extension 1765 for information or to register.

EATING DISORDERS WORKSHOP. Dr. Felix Larocca, founder and medical director of BASH (Bulimia Anorexia Self-Help) Research and Treatment Center for Eating and Mood Disorders in St. Louis, will be the featured speaker for an Eating Disorders Awareness Day program on Wednesday, November 16, in the University Center. Information booths will open at 9 a.m. and Dr. Larocca, an internationally prominent lecturer on eating and mood disorders, will speak at 10:30 a.m. Afternoon programs will include a presentation at 1 p.m. on "The Development of Self-Concept in Women and the Role of Society in that Development" by Ms. Kathleen M. Elpers, assistant professor of social work, and Dr. Howard R. Gabennesch, assistant professor of sociology. A panel discussion at 1:45 p.m. will be moderated by Mrs. Sandra Lawrence, USI Health Services director, and will feature Dr. Larocca; Ms. Guylene Brink, nurse; Ms. Linda Kincade, occupational therapist; and Ms. Leah Tooley, social worker. Information booths will reopen at 3 p.m. The day's program is free and open to the public.

SAFETY CLINIC. A Safety Clinic featuring martial arts instruction will be held from 12 noon to 3 p.m. Saturday, November 12, at the Physical Activities Center, cosponsored by Campus Ministry, the Newman Club, and Tau Kappa Epsilon. Mr. Charles LaVanchy of the Evansville School of Taekwondo will be the instructor.

GERMAN MAJOR APPROVED. In its meeting on October 11, the Indiana Commission for Higher Education approved a German major for USI.

GERMAN FILMS. The USI German faculty and Evansville-Osnabruck Society will host a film evening at 7 p.m. Friday, November 11, when two feature films will be shown in Forum I -- "Peppermint Frieden," the story of a child's dream for peace after World War II and adult reactions to her dream, and "In Strom der Zeit," which attempts to answer the age-old question of "Where are we going?" English subtitles are provided. Admission is free, with donations appreciated. German-style cakes and cookies will be available at intermission.

PERIOD CLOTHING WORKSHOP. The Indiana State Museum and the Past Patterns Historic Patterns Company is cosponsoring a period clothing workshop on mid-1800s garments through Friday, November 11, at Thrall's Opera House in New Harmony. A lecture on period clothing will be presented at 7 p.m. Thursday, November 10, at the opera house. It is free and open to the public.

AMIGO REUNION. The AMIGO (Ask Me I Give Orientation) alumni will hold a reunion at 6 p.m. Friday, November 11, at Eicher Barn and Grimes Haus. There will be a bonfire, entertainment, and reminiscing for former AMIGOs and their families. Contact Mrs. Sandra Danks, Admissions Office assistant director, extension 1765, for information.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETING. Mr. David Frederick, south regional director of Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana, will be the featured speaker at a dinner meeting of the Vanderburgh County Historical Society, to be held at 6 p.m. Tuesday, November 15, in the UC Dining Room. The program is open to the public. Today (Wednesday) is the deadline to make reservations with Dr. Robert L. Reid, vice president for Academic Affairs, extension 1617.

LOOKING FOR A GIFT IDEA? For special people on your holiday gift list, order Gift Certificates to the USI Theatre from the School of Liberal Arts. The certificates are $3 each, which is a $2 discount from the regular admission. These attractive gift certificates are the perfect present for your children's teachers and special friends you want to remember. They can be used for any production at the USI Theatre (not New Harmony Theatre). This offer is open only to USI students and employees.

USI PLAYMAKERS. A new student group, USI Playmakers, has been organized for anyone interested in theatre. For information, call the School of Liberal Arts, extension 1734.

HUMANITIES FELLOWSHIPS. The Rockefeller Foundation Humanities Fellowship is a program for humanities scholars who research further understanding of contemporary social and cultural issues and extend international or intercultural scholarship. Individuals can apply for 1989-90 resident fellowships at 26 host institutions. For information, contact Mrs. Patricia McReynolds, coordinator of Special Projects, extension 1972.

REITZ, MEMORIAL, NORTH POSEY WIN IN USI SPEECH MEET. Reitz High School, Evansville, swept the 11th annual USI Invitational Speech Meet Saturday, November 5, having students place in each of the 11 debate categories, including five first-place awards. Trophies were awarded to the three schools with the highest number of sweepstakes points, while dual ribbons were given in the top five positions in each debate category. Evansville Memorial High School placed second, North Posey was third, Evansville Central fourth, and Evansville Mater Dei fifth. Around 250 students participated, also coming from Evansville Bosse, Day, Harrison, and North; Castle High School, Newburgh; Jasper High School; Marian Heights Academy, Ferdinand; Princeton Community High School; and Tell City High School. Co-chairpersons for the event were Dr. Helen R. Sands, professor of communications, and Ms. Mary A. Schroeder, assistant professor of communications.

HUBBARD SCHOLARSHIP. G. D. Ritzy's will sponsor a "dash for cash" during half times of the men's basketball games and has agreed to match the dollar amount that is won, placing the money in the Barney Hubbard Scholarship Fund. The amount will be determined at the end of the season. The scholarship honors the late Mr. H. Byron "Barney" Hubbard, a long-time USI supporter and member of the USI Foundation who died in December, 1987.

SAVE SCHNUCKS' RECEIPTS. The Student Education Association is sponsoring the Apples for the Classroom project with Schnuck's stores. Please save all your Schnuck's cash register tapes dated between October 10, 1988, and April 8, 1989, and turn them in to the University cashier. If SEA accumulates enough value in receipts, they will redeem them for FREE Apple computer hardware and software. The Apples will be added to the University computing facilities.

RESEARCH DEVELOPMENT SERIES. The second meeting of the Research Development Series sponsored by the School of Business will be held at 3 p.m. Monday, November 14, in UC308. Dr. David Austill, assistant professor of business, will lecture on "Plant Closing Legislation." Dr. Walter W. Jermakowicz, associate professor of business, is coordinator of the series. Papers presented will be made available by the School of Business.

CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN SCIENCE. "Mathematics" will be the focus of the Contemporary Issues in Science, Health, and Technology discussion at 2 p.m. Monday, November 14, in SC296. Dr. David W. Kinsey, associate professor of mathematics, will discuss "What Is Mathematics? Problem Solving Strategies." All faculty members, students, and staff are invited. Contact Dr. Marlene V. Shaw, associate professor of biology, extension 1701, for information.

FALL FILM SERIES -- "Amarcord" (1974, 127 minutes, Italian with English subtitles) Director: Federico Fellini; cast: Magali Noel, Bruno Zanin, Pupella Maggio. This movie is Mr. Fellini's brilliant recollection of his youth in pre-war Italy and his community's shortcomings that paved the way for fascism. The film will be shown at 2 and 6 p.m. Thursday, November 17, in Forum I; it is free and open to the public. The date is changed for this week only, due to Assessment Day class cancellations.

INTRAMURALS. Friday, November 18, is the deadline to enter the final fall competitions in basketball golf (men and women) and euchre (coed). For information, contact Mrs. Ruth A. Waller, coordinator of intramurals and recreation, in PAC203, extension 1942.

SPORTS THIS WEEK. Cross Country -- The USI runners have received a bid for the NCAA championship, to be held Saturday, November 19, at Mississippi College in Clinton, Mississippi. The USI team missed out on an automatic bid by having finished third last weekend in NCAA regionals at SIU-Edwardsville, but were awarded an at-large bid because of their national ranking during the season.

Men's/Women's Basketball -- The men's team will launch 1988-89 play in an exhibition game at 6 p.m. Sunday, November 13, with Lexington AAU (formerly Charter Medical). Come out early -- 4 p.m. -- and watch former ISUE Eagles tangle with former USI Eagles in the University's first Old Timer's Game. Among players will be Brad Fraser, Ernie Brothers, Jeff Embrey, "Spider" Rowser, Andre Jackson, and Mike Wright. The coaches will be John Deem, Doug Claybourne, and former ISUE All-American John Hollinden. The men's team held their final public scrimmage Tuesday night and the Lady Eagles' intrasquad game will be at 2 p.m. Saturday, November 12, at Reitz High School, as the two teams prepare for regular season play starting Saturday, November 19, when both will meet SIU-Edwardsville.

Soccer -- The USI Soccer Eagles returned from the GLVC tournament victorious -- the Eagles defeated Northern Kentucky Saturday to go to the final game Sunday with Lewis (7-0 in the GLVC) and defeated the conference leader, 2-1. In addition, Coach Tony Colavecchia was named GLVC Coach of the Year. The Eagles entered the tournament with an 11-6 overall record and a 6-1 GLVC mark, after having set a new school record of five consecutive shutouts by outscoring their opponents 20-0. Congratulations for an outstanding season!

Volleyball -- GLVC tournament at Indianapolis, Friday-Saturday, November 11-12.

Reminder -- The Athletics Office reports that Monday, January 30, when the Eagles play SIU-Edwardsville, will be Faculty and Staff Night, with tickets available for $1 that night only. Buy them in advance from the Athletics Office.
