Five members of the staff at Indiana State University Evansville will be honored for their service to the campus at a Five Year Service Dinner at Bockelman's Restaurant on Thursday, January 25, 1973. Staff members to be recognized are President David L. Rice, 611 Mels Drive; Vice-President Byron C. Wright, 606 Drexel Drive; Mrs. John (Duffie) Barton, 1400 Bluff Lane; Mrs. Donald (Sharon) Calhoun, 519 S. Bedford; and Mrs. William (Wanda) Kirchoff, 1410 Reiter Drive.

These ISUE staff members joined Indiana State University Evansville in 1967 when the campus was housed in the Centennial School off St. Joseph Avenue.

Dr. Rice came to ISUE as administrative head of the campus from Ball State University where he was Professor of Education. While on faculty leave from Ball State University, Dr. Rice served as Vice-President with the Co-operative Educational Research Laboratory in Indianapolis during 1966 and as Research Co-ordinator in the Bureau of Research in the U.S. Office of Education, Washington, D.C. in 1965. Dr. Rice earned his undergraduate degree, M.S. and Ph.D. degrees at Purdue University in Lafayette, Indiana. Active in community affairs, Dr. Rice is on the Board of Directors, Buffalo Trace Boy Scout Council; Evansville Future, Inc.; Evansville Chamber of Commerce; Goodwill Board of Directors; Mayor's Citizens Advisory Committee for Community Development and Planning; and past member of Evansville Housing Authority.

An administrative staff member at Ball State University before coming to the Evansville Campus, Mr. Wright received his B.S. and M.A. degrees at Ball State University. Mr. Wright serves on various University related committees and is active in community service work as he serves as Treasurer of the Tri-State Epilepsy Association and is active in West Side Nut Club; YMCA Board of Directors; and member of the Evansville Football Stadium Committee.

Other five-year honorees include Mrs. John Barton, who works in area of Student Services with student activities and student housing and serves as a university representative to Westwood Garden Club; Mrs. Donald Calhoun, secretary to chairman of the division of humanities; and Mrs. William Kirchoff, secretary to chairman of the division of social science. Mrs. Kirchoff served as president of the Secretaries of ISUE in the 1971-72 academic year.

The Five Year Service Dinner is co-ordinated by Office of Personnel under the direction of Mrs. Mary Patterson, Director of Personnel.
