

WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES. The 1979-80 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges will carry the names of eight students from ISUE who have been selected as being among the country's most outstanding campus leaders.

The following students were included:
KAREN HOLLAND BONNELL, DAVID GOODMAN,

MICHAEL J. BROUGHAL, STEPHEN R. HART, CAROL ROWDEN, ANTHONY SCALES, DAVID STUMPF, and KATHY ANN STUMPF.

The Student Activities Advisory Committee and editors of the annual directory have included the names of these students based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential.

They join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,200 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations.

Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934.

REMINDER: POETRY READING. On Wednesday, January 16, ISUE will open its Humanities Forum series with a poetry reading by former ISUE creative writing instructor Mark Jarman. The reading is scheduled for 1:00 p.m. in Room 350 of the University Center. It is free and the public is invited to attend.

FACULTY-STAFF CHRISTIAN DISCUSSION GROUP. The Faculty-Staff Christian Discussion Group has moved their lunchtime meeting to Tuesdays this semester, from 12:30 to 2:00 p.m. The group will continue to use the President's Suite off the cafeteria. Our first topic will be "Prayer" by Father Bernie Lutz.

All faculty and staff are invited to join in for one or more of the meetings. You can come through the line or brown-bag it.

For further information, contact Father Bernie at extension 1810 or Andy Jorgensen at extension 1716.

WELCOME TO: GERALD E. MADDEN, who has accepted the position of Assistant Director of Computer Services and Administrative Systems Analyst. He attended Michigan Technological University for two years on a General Motors Scholarship and earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in mathematics with a minor in business from the University of Evansville. He comes to ISUE from Zettler Software Company, where he was as Application Consultant. MADDEN, his wife Darlene, and their two children live in Evansville. MADDEN enjoys hunting, fishing, camping, collecting books and jogging.

ANOTHER NEW YORK EXPERIENCE! The Division of Humanities and the Office of Continuing Education are again offering the New York Experience, an intensive eight-day art and theater tour, June 10 through June 17. Included are three Broadway plays, including "The Elephant Man," "Sweeney Todd," and "Oklahoma," three off-Broadway plays, a post-performance interview, and a trip to the Metropolitan Museum of Art. The $456 fee includes hotel accommodations (double occupancy), airfare, transportation from airport to hotel, tickets to all plays and the Metropolitan, and information packet. A deposit of $175 by February 1 is required to take advantage of the $456 price. After February 1, the price will be increased as airfares are increased. Available for one semester hour credit as Humanities 220X for an additional fee of $26.50.

NEW FACES. JULIA A. YANCEY has joined the staff as an accounting clerk. A graduate of Reitz High School, she enjoys swimming, horseback riding, and any outdoor activity. She and her husband, Donald, have two children and live in Evansville.
