Location

Founded in 1965, the University of Southern Indiana is located in Evansville, the state's third-largest city. From its picturesque site on the Ohio River, Evansville is a comfortable drive from the major metropolitan areas of Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, and St. Louis.

Academic Life

The University enrolls 10,050 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. Several graduate degree programs also are available.

Campus Life

Beyond the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 80 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

Health Professions Center

Residence Life Office

Residence Life

USI offers two kinds of housing. One is the conventional apartment and the other is suite-style housing in a residence hall. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor recreational areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven overwhelmingly popular with students. A meal plan is available in the University Center. More than 3,000 students live on campus.

Financial Assistance

USI is the most affordable four-year institution in the state of Indiana, and some families find that they can handle the cost of a USI education without financial aid. Many others qualify for need-based financial aid packages, including grants, loans, and jobs.

H. Ray Hoops, President

H. Ray Hoops became the second president of the University of Southern Indiana in July 1994. During his tenure, he has forged important community partnerships and has overseen dramatic growth in the University's enrollment, facilities, and academic programs.

A native of Illinois, Dr. Hoops received his undergraduate degree from Eastern Illinois University and master's and doctoral degrees in Audiology and Speech Sciences from Purdue University. He also completed an M.B.A. at Moorhead State University.

His career as a scientist and educator has included a faculty appointment jointly at the University of Michigan and Wayne State University.

He published extensively and was nationally recognized for his contributions in the areas of rehabilitation of post-surgical patients with cancer of the larynx and in the analysis of language dynamics resulting from brain damage. Among his numerous publications in a variety of behavioral and medical journals was the report on a study which received the National Research Award, the highest honor of the American Speech and Hearing Association. Dr. Hoops also was named Fellow of the Association.

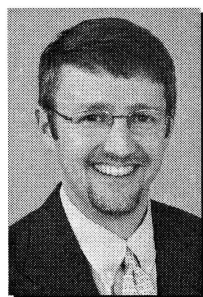

His administrative appointments included the directorship of the Division of Marketing in the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. He received two national service awards for that work. He also was a Senior Fulbright-Hayes Research Scholar in the College of Medicine at the University of the Philippines. Other appointments included dean of the Graduate College of the University of Northern Iowa, associate vice chancellor for Academic Affairs for the Oregon State System of Higher Education, vice president for Academic Affairs at North Dakota State University, and president of South Dakota State University.

In the six years prior to becoming the president of the University of Southern Indiana, Dr. Hoops served as the vice chancellor for Academic Affairs at the University of Mississippi. While at Ole Miss, Dr. Hoops received the National Council of State Governments Association Award for his pioneering work on Project '95, a blueprint for the reform of education in the state of Mississippi. He also received the Peterson's Guide Award for contributions to the education of minority students in the innovative and highly successful graduate participation initiative.

President Hoops serves on the Deaconess Hospital Board of Directors, the Welborn Foundation Board of Directors, the Metropolitan Evansville Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, and the WNIN Board of Directors. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities and serves as the chair of the Indiana Conference of Higher Education.

Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of athletics in January of 2002. He moved into the position after spending seven years as the assistant director of athletics. He is the second director of athletics that USI has had.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner's Cup winner and is the host of the 2004 NCAA Division II Cross Country national championships.

In addition to his duties as director of athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women's tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women's basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach.

As the men's tennis coach, no one did it better in the GLVC than Hall. He was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns and set a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after a tenure at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fund-raising and promotion activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have two sons, Nathan and Garland, and daughter Mary Claire.

— Nicole McDonald, Freshman

“I like the open setting of the campus and that I am able to play basketball while attending the best school for my major.”

— Emily Meier, Freshman

“I like the campus as well as the diversity and ever-changing atmosphere. USI offers a chance to grow as a person.”

— Megan Nelson, Senior

“The coaching staff is great and USI has a friendly atmosphere on campus.”

— Jamie Truitt, Senior

SEASON OUTLOOK

2004-05 Women's Basketball

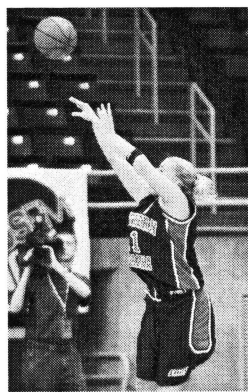

Heading into the 2004-05 season, the University of Southern Indiana women's basketball team will have a strong foundation to build upon as it pushes for the top of the Great Lakes Valley Conference standings and a trip to the NCAA Division II Tournament for the eighth time in 11 years.

The Screaming Eagles were 20-10, 12-8 GLVC, in 2003-04 and returned to the NCAA II Tournament after a one-year hiatus.

USI started out last season winning three straight, before suffering its first setback to Bellarmine University.

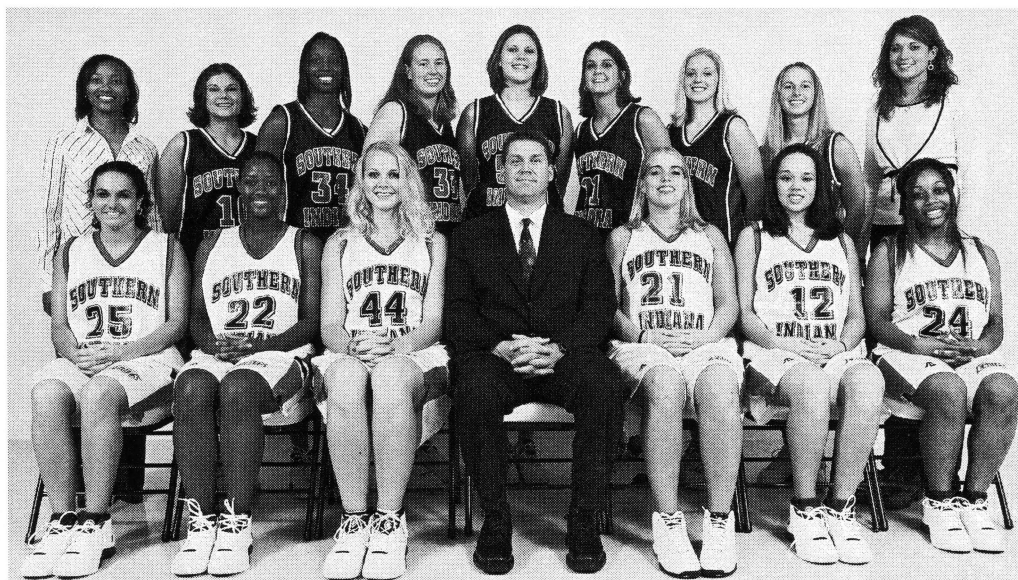

The Eagles quickly rebounded, winning five of their next six games to improve to 8-2 by the new year.

That streak included a pair of wins in the Torneo Cancun de Basquetbol as well as dominating road victories at Kentucky Wesleyan College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

Senior guard Jamie Truitt averaged 16.5 points per game during her first season with the Screaming Eagles.

Despite suffering tough losses on the road to the upper division of the GLVC, the Eagles extracted revenge, posting double-digit victories over the University of Indianapolis, Northern Kentucky University, and Quincy University.

With an NCAA II Tournament berth at stake, the Eagles performed when it counted the most. They won five of their last six games before solidifying their spot in the NCAA post-season with a 90-73 victory over Lewis University in the first round of the conference tournament.

Leading USI's quest for its third conference title in five years is senior guard Jamie Truitt. Truitt was second in the GLVC a year ago with 16.5 points per game (ppg).

Truitt's long-range capabilities toppled the opposition as she led the GLVC with a single-season school-record 84 three-pointers.

Because she has just one semester of eligibility remaining, senior guard Kennitra Johnson will have to sit out the first semester—which amounts to the first eight games of the season. Johnson averaged 9.4 ppg and 3.1

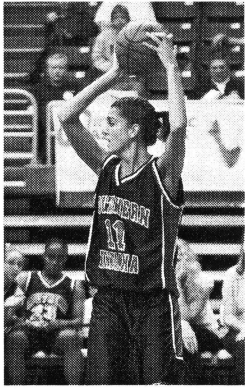

assists per game (apg) in 18 games last season.

USI will look to three players to fill the role of point guard with junior Tiara Brown, sophomore Leah Stormont, and freshman Nicole McDonald contending for the spot early in the season.

Brown is transferring to USI from Lake Land College where she averaged 12.3 ppg and 5.0 apg during her sophomore campaign. Stormont, who proved to be a strong defender, showed that she could handle the job during her freshman season with the Eagles.

McDonald was an All-Area and All-Conference performer as a senior at Portage High School.

Freshman Brittane Oeth will provide depth at the guard position after leading Mt. Vernon High School in scoring as a junior and senior.

Junior forward Ashley Green averaged 7.8 points and 4.7 rebounds per game as a sophomore in 2003-04.

Two of USI's biggest losses from last season occupied the forward positions. Last season's senior class—Shajuan Lindsey and Shannon Wells—accounted for 30.6 percent of USI's offensive output and 28.9 percent of USI's rebounding output. Lindsey led the team with 5.3 rpg and Wells was USI's second-leading scorer with 12.3 ppg.

Junior Ashley Green will bring added experience to the USI front-court. Green averaged 7.8 ppg and 4.7 rpg in 2003-04 and had a breakthrough game last season against Wayne State University, when she recorded a career-high 17 points and 10 rebounds.

Look for freshman Marshay Jolly to provide a spark at the guard/small forward position. Jolly, who averaged 10.8 ppg and 4.6 rpg as a senior at Merrillville High School, is an athletic player who scores, rebounds, and plays solid defense for the Eagles.

The Eagles will enjoy more flexibility in the paint as senior forward/centers Andrea Engleking and Megan Nelson will be joined by two newcomers and one freshman.

Engleking showed good signs during her first year with the Eagles, averaging 6.8 ppg and 3.8 rpg. She was named to the Cancun de Basquetbol

All-Tournament team after averaging 15.0 points and 8.0 rebounds during the two-game stretch.

Nelson averaged 5.3 ppg and 3.9 rpg during her junior season, but averaged 8.0 ppg and 6.3 rpg in USI's last nine games.

Freshman center Emily Meier sat out the 2003-04 campaign with a shoulder injury after averaging 13.3 ppg and 5.4 rpg as a senior at University High School in 2002-03.

USI also expects junior forward Sabrina Brandon and freshman forward/center Jessica Minnick to be key factors in the paint. Brandon averaged 11.6 ppg and 5.3 rpg at Parkland College in 2003-04, while Minnick averaged 20.7 ppg and 9.2 rpg as a senior at Carmi-White County High School.

The 2004-05 campaign tips off with Head Coach Rick Stein needing just two victories to reach 100 career wins. Stein, along with Assistant Coach Randa Gatling, is entering his sixth season at the helm of the women's program.

USI starts the season on the road with the University of Alabama-Huntsville before returning home for a four-game homestand. The Eagles will have two three-game homestands and a pair of two-game homestands before closing the season with four straight on the road.

USI Head Coach Rick Stein

Rick Stein enters his sixth season at the helm of the University of Southern Indiana women's basketball program after leading the Screaming Eagles to the NCAA II Tournament for the third time in his tenure as the head coach at USI.

Entering the 2004-05 season, Stein is two victories shy of becoming the third coach in the program's 29-year history to reach 100 victories. He is just four victories shy of becoming the second winningest coach in the program's history.

In 13 seasons as an assistant coach and head coach for USI women's basketball, Stein has been a part of 257 victories (63.5 percent of USI's all-time wins), four conference championships, three GLVC Tournament titles, all seven of USI's NCAA II Tournament appearances, and two NCAA II Elite Eight appearances.

Last season, Stein led the Eagles to a 20-10 mark and a 12-8 record in the GLVC. His Eagles battled injuries and illness to return to the NCAA II Tournament for the first time since the 2001-02 season.

Despite a rough 2002-03 campaign, Stein and his coaching staff brought in a strong recruiting class that set the stage for a return to national competitiveness. In 2003-04, USI had the sixth-best turnaround in Division II, with USI improving by 12 wins from the previous year.

In 2002-03, Stein and the Eagles were forced into a rebuilding year after losing five seniors and more than 60 points and 25 rebounds per game from the 2001-02 squad. With only one returning starter, Stein and his staff had a young team competing for a spot in the GLVC Tournament late in the season and finished the year with an 8-19 overall record.

The 2001-02 season saw Stein's Eagles win a second straight GLVC Championship and an NCAA Division II Great Lakes Regional appearance with a 27-6 overall record and a 16-4 GLVC record. Stein also has led the Eagles into the national spotlight with his squad ranked nationally for 37 consecutive weeks between December of 2000 and December of 2002.

In just his second season with the Eagles, Stein led USI to a 28-4 record and the biggest season-to-season turnaround in school history (+13 wins). Stein, who earned GLVC Coach of the Year honors, directed the Screaming Eagles to the Great Lakes Valley Conference championship, GLVC Tournament Championship, the NCAA Division II Tournament appearance, and a second NCAA II Elite Eight appearance.

In his first season, Stein went 15-12 overall, tying the record for most victories for a rookie head coach and setting the record for best winning percentage for a rookie coach (.556). Stein's overall winning percentage is the best in USI women's basketball history.

Stein is a 1992 USI graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration. He joined the Eagles program in 1991-92 as a graduate assistant under former Head Coach Chancellor Dugan. He was promoted to head assistant coach in 1994 and promptly helped Dugan and the Eagles to their best season as a varsity sport at USI.

In his eight seasons, Stein helped Dugan amass a 159-73 record with four straight NCAA Division II Tournament appearances (1994-95 to 1997-98) and three Great Lakes Valley Conference titles. The Eagles were the NCAA II Tournament finalist and produced the only perfect season in GLVC history (20-0) in 1997.

A native of Crete, Illinois, Stein was a two-year starter on the Southern Indiana men's basketball team from 1989-91. During his tenure as a player, Stein helped USI advance to an appearance in the NCAA Division II South Central Regional in 1989-90 and a win over Division I University of Wisconsin in 1990-91. Before joining USI's team, he played basketball at Parkland College in Champaign, Illinois, and earned an associate degree. Parkland finished as the NJCAA Division II runner-up in 1988 and fourth nationally in 1989.

A member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, (WBCA) Stein and his wife Kari have a son Alex and a daughter Mallorie.

Stein Quickbits

- has been a part of 257 victories
 - has played or coached in 10 national tournaments
 - has coached in two Elite Eights and one national title game

Stein's numbers at USI

In 2001-02, Head Coach Rick Stein led the Screaming Eagles to their second straight Great Lakes Valley Conference Tournament title.

In 13 seasons with the USI women's basketball team, eight as an assistant and five as head coach, Stein has been a part of 257 Eagle victories, seven NCAA II Tournament appearances, four regular-season GLVC titles, and a record three GLVC Tournament championships.

Stein has been a part of 63.5 percent of USI's all-time victories.

In just his second season, Stein was voted the GLVC Coach of the Year after leading USI to a 28-4 record and both the GLVC regular-season and tournament championships.

Stein, who led USI to its second NCAA II Elite Eight appearance in 2000-01, needs just two wins to become the third coach in USI history to reach 100 career wins.

Randa Gatling, Assistant Coach

A 1999 USI graduate with a bachelor's degree in social work, assistant coach Randa Gatling returns for her sixth season with the Eagles. Gatling assists with game scouts, recruiting, player assessment, and on-the-court skill work with the guards.

In addition to her coaching duties, Gatling is USI's senior woman administrator and an instructor in physical education. She also is responsible for USI's Eagle Math program.

A native of Evansville, Indiana, Gatling started her career at Evansville Central High School. She served as the head coach for the first-ever Central girl's freshman basketball team and was instrumental in its creation.

During her playing days at USI, Gatling was a member of the 1997 NCAA Division II national finalist team. Her play helped the Eagles to NCAA II Tournament appearances in 1995, 1996, 1997, and 1998 as well as GLVC championships in 1995, 1997, and 1998.

The Eagles were a dominating 100-16 (.862), including an amazing 67-9 (.881) in the GLVC, during Gatling's four years in an Eagle uniform.

As a player and a coach, Randa Gatling (Left) has helped lead the Eagles to 198 wins, five GLVC championships, three GLVC Tournament championships, two NCAA II Elite Eight appearances, and the 1997 NCAA II Finals.

Casey Nations, Assistant Coach

Casey Nations enters her second season as assistant women's basketball coach. Nations will assist in all facets of the women's basketball program.

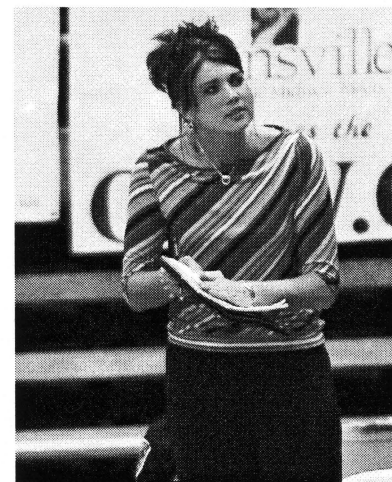

In addition to her coaching duties, Nations is an instructor in physical education.

A native of O'Fallon, Illinois, Nations is no stranger to USI women's basketball.

As a player for the Screaming Eagles, Nations helped them advance to the 2001 NCAA Division II Elite Eight, a GLVC regular-season and tournament championship, and a 28-4 record. She played in 31 games during her senior season, averaging 4.3 points and 4.8 rebounds per game. Nations led USI and was third in the GLVC in blocks per game.

Prior to joining USI, Nations spent a season at the University of New Mexico after averaging 11.0 points and 9.5 rebounds as a sophomore at Belleville Area College in Illinois.

Nations earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from USI in 2002.

As a player, Casey Nations (Right) helped the Eagles to a 28-4 overall record and the GLVC regular season and tournament championships in 2001. She also helped USI to its second NCAA II Elite Eight appearance.

Brianna Wright, Manager

Brianna Wright enters her fourth season as a manager for the USI women's basketball team. Wright has been responsible for the Lady Eagle Ball Girl Program, taping games, and daily practice responsibilities for the past three years.

A native of St. Croix, Indiana, Wright is majoring in English Education. She graduated from Perry Central High School.

Screaming Eagles fly around the USA and beyond

The University of Southern Indiana women's basketball teams have traveled the continental United States and beyond over the last 13 years. USI has played in regular-season tournaments in Alaska, California, Florida, Missouri, Mexico (Cancun), and the Bahamas; and in NCAA Division II Tournaments in Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, and North Dakota.

In December 2004, the Eagles will travel to Midland, Michigan, to compete in the GLVC/GLIAC Challenge. USI will play Northwood University and Ferris State University December 30 and 31.

Eagles take home championship

The Eagles are enjoying some new hardware after defeating Arkansas Tech to win the Torneo Cancun de Basquetbol championship.

The University of Southern Indiana's trip to Cancun, Mexico, last season was a success on multiple levels.

The Screaming Eagles used their pressure defense to force a combined 60 turnovers to defeat Assumption College and Arkansas Tech University en route to the Torneo Cancun de Basquetbol championship.

Shajuan Lindsey was named the tournament MVP and Andrea Engleking was named to the All-Tournament team.

In addition to some great basketball action, the team enjoyed sandy beaches, warm sunny days, and some ocean fun. They even found some time to do a little shopping.

USI All-GLVC History

Jamie Truitt's All-GLVC selection marked the 37th time a Southern Indiana women's basketball player has earned All-GLVC honors.

Breezing through the years of success

The University of Southern Indiana women's basketball team enters the 2004-05 campaign seeking its eighth NCAA Division II Tournament appearance in 11 seasons. The last 10 seasons have not only produced seven NCAA II Tournament appearances, but have seen the Screaming Eagles make it to the NCAA II Sweet Sixteen three times and to the Elite Eight twice. USI finished as the runner-up in 1997.

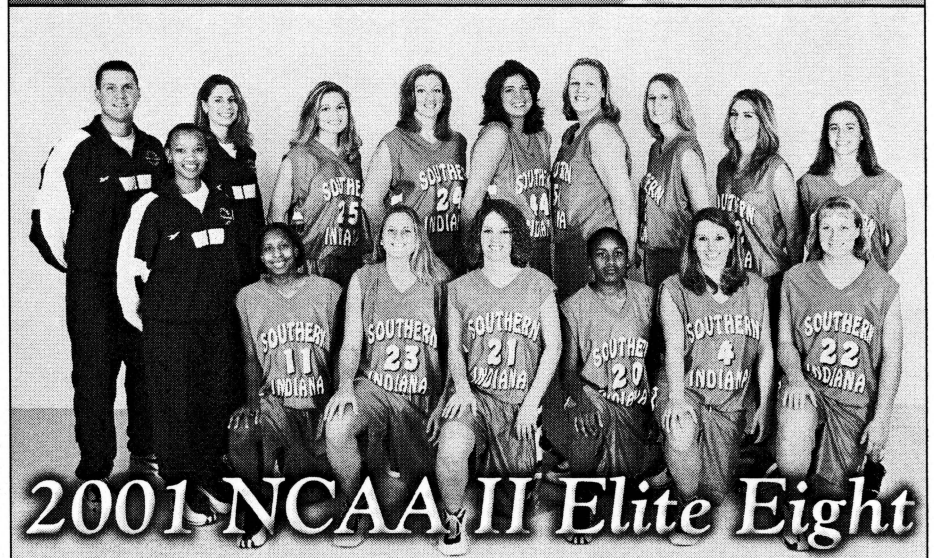

In addition to its NCAA II Tournament success, USI also has been a powerhouse in the Great Lakes Valley Conference. The Eagles have won four GLVC regular-season titles since 1995 and have won the GLVC Tournament a record three times. In six trips to the GLVC Tournament, the Eagles are a conference-best 10-3.

Note: Since 1994, the Eagles have had five players earn All-America honors.

After beginning the 1996-97 season with a 1-1 record, the Eagles won 29 straight games as well as the GLVC and NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Championship. USI went on to win its first two games in the NCAA II Elite Eight before falling in the national championship game to North Dakota. USI also became the first and only team in GLVC history to go 20-0 in conference play. USI finished the season with a school-record 30-2 mark and finished second in the national rankings.

After missing out on the NCAA II Tournament in 1999 and 2000, the Eagles exploded back onto the national stage in 2001. The Eagles finished the 2000-01 season with a 28-4 mark and won a share of the GLVC regular-season title. The Eagles went on to win the GLVC Tournament championship as well as the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Championship for the second time in school history.

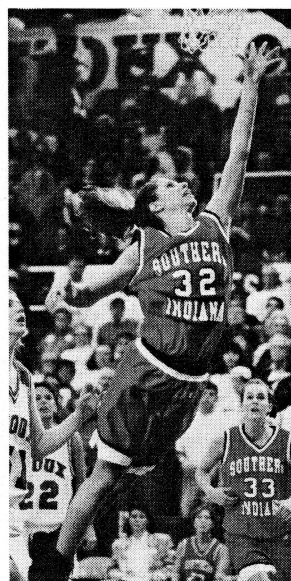

Quick fact: The Eagles have hosted the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament twice. However, the two times the Eagles have gone to the Elite Eight, they have won the regional tournament in the state of Michigan.

All-American Trends

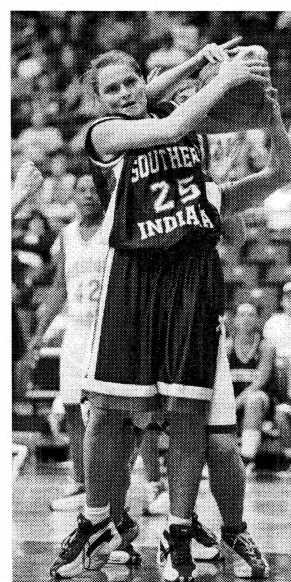

Kathy Lauck was the first of five USI players to earn All-America honors since 1994. Lauck averaged 20.1 points and 9.2 rebounds per game as a senior and led the Screaming Eagles to their first winning season in eight years. USI finished the season with a 17-10 mark and a 12-6 record in the GLVC. Lauck, who is third all-time at USI in career scoring with 1,573 points, earned GLVC Player of the Year honors in 1994 and was a two-time All-GLVC selection. She was recognized by three publications for All-America honors.

In 1995, LeAnn Freeland became the second player in school history to earn All-America honors. Freeland, USI's all-time leading scorer with 2,269 points, finished her career at USI as a three-time All-American. However, her sophomore campaign in 1994-95 stood out as she became the first player in school history to earn National Player of the Year honors. During the 1994-95 season, Freeland averaged 24.4 points and 9.2 points per game. She finished her career as USI's all-time leader in six statistical categories, including rebounds (961). The two-time GLVC Player of the Year holds 16 school records and was a three-time Academic All-American.

Eileen Weber was recognized by two organizations for All-America honors in 1996-97. She also earned All-America honors for her efforts during the 1997-98 season. In 1996-97, Weber helped lead the Screaming Eagles to a 30-2 record and the NCAA II National Championship game. She started her career at USI by earning GLVC Newcomer of the Year honors and ended it by earning GLVC Player of the Year honors. Weber is second all-time at USI in career points (1,847) and career rebounds (842). She averaged 17.8 points and 8.0 rebounds per game as a senior in 1997-98 and 15.4 points and 6.4 rebounds as a junior in 1996-97.

After a quiet first three seasons, Elizabeth Prewett broke out as a senior during the 2000-01 season. She averaged 15.0 points and 9.2 rebounds per game to lead USI to a 28-4 record and its second trip to the NCAA II Elite Eight. Her efforts landed her first-team All-GLVC and All-Region honors. She also was selected GLVC All-Tournament Team and was named the MVP of the 2001 NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament. Prewett is ranked 14th all-time at USI in career scoring (837) and eighth all-time at USI in career rebounds (589). In 2000, she helped the USI volleyball team to a share of the GLVC regular-season title.

Physical Activities Center

The Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 25 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the on-campus arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

The center court of the PAC has been the scene for many games of regional and national interest during the past 10 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 1998 women's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 volleyball GLVC Tournament.

A true home court, the USI men's basketball team has a 358-55 home record since 1980, an .867 winning percentage, while the women's team has a 138-35 home record since 1993-94, an .800 winning percentage.
