NCAA CROSS COUNTRY NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS. USI will host the NCAA Division II Cross Country National Championships on Saturday, November 21, at Oak Meadow Golf and Country Club. There will be 11 women's teams and 17 men's teams competing, with the women embarking on their 5,000-meter run at 9:30 a.m. and the men starting their 10,000-meter run at 10:15 a.m. Parking arrangements have been changed for the championships, with facilities at Camp Reveal on Boonville-New Harmony Road to be used on Saturday. Shuttle buses again will take fans to Oak Meadow. Only the participants with parking permits may park at Oak Meadow.

The top 25 runners Saturday will earn All-American status. USI finished second in the NCAA Division II regional competition November 7 at Oak Meadow Golf and Country Club, qualifying for the national championships. James Little led the USI team, completing the 10,000-meter course in 32 minutes, 12 seconds, to win sixth place among the 121 runners from 20 Division II schools. Southeast Missouri State took first place and a fourth consecutive regional title. The top two men's teams (SEMO and USI) and top two individuals (Art Waddle of SEMO and Anthony Vodicka of Lewis) qualified for the nationals. The women's 5,000-meter competition was won by Ferris State, with Southeast Missouri coming in second.

Tickets to the national championships are $2 for adults and $1 for students. Let's all turn out to support the Cross Country team and USI's sponsorship of this NCAA national event!

CHRISTMAS MADRIGAL FEASTES DECEMBER 3-6. The 1987 Christmas season will arrive December 3 on the USI campus, when the splendor of song and the pomp of tradition -- the festive Christmas Madrigal Feastes -- open in the University Center Dining Room. A yuletide celebration reminiscent of centuries past, the Christmas Madrigal Feastes include the traditional old English roast beef dinner brought to guests by serving wenches and liveried servants. There is continuous entertainment by the talented troupe of Mid-America Singers in an authentically staged Dining Hall bedecked with Renaissance style garlands and banners. The Madrigals are directed by Mrs. Sue Schriber, USI director of music, and produced by her husband, Mr. Jack Schriber.

The feaste starts at 7:30 p.m. Thursday through Saturday, December 3-5, and at 6 p.m. on Sunday, December 6. The ticket price is $15 per person; a special $10 price is available for students and senior citizens for the Sunday performance only. This year, the special price also is being offered to the hearing impaired and a table will be reserved for them with interpreters available to present the entire Sunday evening performance in sign language. In addition, the Mid-America Singers offer the opportunity for interested persons to be "Patrons of the Feaste," combining an enriching and unique evening with a gift to the continuing production of the feastes and other performances by the group. For a Patron's Gift of $75 or more, the donor receives two tickets to one performance and the option to buy four other tickets at $12.50 each. Patrons will be acknowledged in the feaste program, if desired. Contact the Division of Humanities, extension 1734, for a flyer/reservation form; reservations will not be taken over the telephone.

USI THEATER PRODUCTION BRINGS OLD FRIENDS TOGETHER. When USI Theater decided to do three American classics for the 1987-88 season, the director and his wife, Dr. Douglas and Mrs. Laura Hubbell, thought of an old friend from college days. They called Mr. Robert Meadors in Detroit, where he is a consultant with Thomas Cook Travel U.S.A., and asked if he'd like to be a guest director for the local production of "The Glass Menagerie." Meadors was very interested. It not only would mean getting back into theater, where he had spent many years of his life, but getting to spend some time in home territory. He is a native of Petersburg, Indiana, and aside from a visit seven years ago for a class reunion, has not made it back often since he left in 1951 to go to Indiana University. Meadors wasn't sure his employer would give him the time needed for casting and rehearsals. But the employer cooperated readily and Meadors has arrived and has rehearsals well under way for Tennessee Williams' first masterpiece.

USI Theater will present the classic at 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, December 3-4-5 and 10-11-12, and 2 p.m. on Sunday, December 6. The cast of four includes USI students Mr. Tedd Klipsch, Ms. Lisa Hubbell, and Mr. Bill Hairston, with Laura Hubbell as the mother, Amanda Wingfield. Lisa is the Hubbells' daughter, making the play to a large extent a family affair for old college buddies. Dr. Hubbell again will handle scenery and backstage arrangements.

The most unusual aspect of this is that Mr. Meadors has been confined to a wheelchair as a result of a viral infection 10 years ago that attacked his spinal cord. He had, from 1962 until 1980, been a civilian director for various U.S. military theater and musical programs in Baumholder, Nurnberg, Frankfurt, and Heidelberg, Germany. Mr. Meadors said they put together small variety shows that went on tour and also had permanent playhouses for regular productions. The USI Theater reminds him of the playhouse in Frankfurt. Mr. Meadors' health problems prompted his retirement in 1980, primarily because Europe was not "wheelchair friendly," he explained. He added that retirement "was wonderful for about three years, then I got bored." Extensive travel during his years in Germany made the travel business a natural attraction. He took a travel industry course and began interviewing, winding up with Thomas Cook in 1983. For those familiar with the hilly terrain surrounding USI Theater, Mr. Meadors points out that a ramp from the parking lot has made the theater "wheelchair friendly."

MID-AMERICA SINGERS GOING TO DISNEY WORLD. USI's Mid-America Singers have been selected by audition to perform at Disney World in Florida on Sunday, March 27, 1988, during "Magic Music Days." Mrs. Sue Schriber, USI music director, said they were selected on the basis of video and cassette tapes submitted for the audition. She said they will perform on the "Tomorrowland" stage, presenting a contemporary program of jazz, swing, gospel, and rock music.

KAPPA DELTA PI CHRISTMAS CARD. Kappa Delta Pi's annual Christmas scholarship campaign is under way. Members of the USI family are invited to participate, contributing at least $5 to be included in the Christmas card or Hanukkah greetings that will be mailed to your friends and colleagues at the University. Last year's project generated a $1,100 scholarship for a USI student, awarded on Honors Day. Since there are underwriters for the cards to be mailed, every dollar collected goes directly to the scholarship fund. Make your check payable to Kappa Delta Pi Scholarship Fund and send it to KDP Scholarship, Division of Education, by Tuesday, November 24.

DISTINGUISHED PROFESSOR AWARD. Friday, December 4, is the deadline for nominations for the 1988 USI Distinguished Professor Award. Each full-time faculty member is eligible to nominate and be nominated for this prestigious award. If you need a copy of the guidelines and/or a nomination form, contact your Faculty and Academic Affairs Committee divisional representative or Ms. Glenda Miller, committee chairman, at extension 1702.

LIBRARY EXHIBIT. In recognition of National Children's Book Week, November 16-22, an exhibit of projects centered on a Children's Picture Book or Poem will be on display on the main floor of the Library and in the Learning Resources Center. The projects were created by students in a children's literature class taught by Dr. Janet Freeman, professor of education. The displays will be available through November so take a few minutes and enjoy the creativity of these education students.

NEW PROJECTOR AVAILABLE. Media Services now has available for checkout a limelight computer projector. The limelighter produces a projected image of a CRT screen display. It is an excellent teaching aid for instructors of computer classes. Its only limitation is that it requires a dimly lit or darkened room. To reserve the limelighter or to receive additional information, call Nancy Thompson, Media Services coordinator, extension 1888.

TAKE A BREATHER... Thursday, November 19, is the Great American Smoke Out, a day set aside when the entire nation will take a holiday from smoking. So if you've felt like quitting, this Thursday is the day for quitters. Ask a non-smoking friend to help you quit or call Health Services for information and tips for quitting.

UNITED WAY REPORT. With 14 of the 15 Divisions reporting, 201 of the 330 University employees, or 61 percent, have pledged a total of $9,985.33 toward the University's goal of $12,210. Almost a fourth of those contributing -- 47 employees -- have pledged Fair Share donations. This represents an increase of four Fair Share pledges over last year's campaign.

Congratulations to the two divisions which have recorded 100 percent participation:

- Athletics/Student Health/ Division of Education led by area representative Sandi Lawrence
- President's Office/Student Affairs/University Relations/Personnel/Publications led by area representative Joanie Jost

An appreciation party will be held Friday, November 20, to recognize all United Way volunteers and those who have pledged Fair Share gifts. At the party, winners of the three Fair Share Lottery prizes will be selected. The traveling trophies and plaques for Divisions recording 100 percent participation also will be awarded.

EXECUTIVE-IN-RESIDENCE. Mr. Robert L. Koch II, president and director of George Koch Sons, Inc., will serve as the Executive-In-Residence in the Division of Business fall program, this Friday, November 20, in the University Center. The program will start with coffee and donuts at 9:30 a.m.; Mr. Koch will lead discussion sessions at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. and will speak at the noon luncheon. All sessions are open to the public; the discussions are free, while lunch will be $5 per person. Reservations should be made by Wednesday, November 18, by calling extension 1718.

HUMANITIES FORUMS. A noted poet and a "retired" theater and recreation director for military installations in Germany will be featured in Humanities Forums on Monday, November 30, and Wednesday, December 2. The poet, Mr. Liam Rector, executive director of the Associated Writing Program at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia, will give a poetry reading from his book, The Sorrow of Architecture, at 7 p.m. on November 30, at the University Center. Mr. Rector has been poetry consultant with the Folger Shakespeare Library in Washington, D. C., and the National Endowment for the Arts. He was the 1985-86 Guggenheim Fellowship recipient.

The second program at 2 p.m. December 2 at the University Center will feature Mr. Robert O. Meadors, guest director for USI Theater's second production in this season's American classics series. The theater group is doing Tennessee Williams' first masterpiece, "The Glass Menagerie," which will be Mr. Meadors' topic for the forum. The forums are open to the public. For information, contact Mr. Matthew Graham, assistant professor of English, extension 1953 or 1734.

AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY HONORED. Word has been received that the ACS student affiliates chapter at USI has been selected for special recognition. The chapter earned an outstanding rating for its performance during the 1986-87 year, and will be recognized in Chemical & Engineering News and in the pHilter, both publications of the Society. Congratulations to the ACS members and to chapter advisor Dr. Howard Dunn, professor of chemistry.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Aldo Cardarelli, professor of education, has been notified that his manuscript, "Reinspection in the Use of an Informal Reading Inventory," has been accepted for publication in the Reading Teacher, journal of the International Reading Association. The manuscript resulted from research completed with children in the Evansville-Vanderburgh School Corporation.

Mrs. Ann Cooper, Admissions counselor for adults, will be the featured speaker at the monthly meeting of Women In Networking (WIN) on November 19 in USI's University Center. Her topic is "Unidentified Foreign Object: What is Your Personality Type?"

Mr. Matthew Graham, assistant professor of English/Creative Writing, gave a reading of his poetry, a lecture, and taught a creative writing workshop at Kenyon (Ohio) College on November 7 and 8. He also has had new work accepted by the Pan American Arts Festival/Arts Insight for inclusion in an anthology entitled A Literary Memory, and has been invited by the Indiana Writers' Conference to give a poetry reading and teach a workshop on December 12 at the Indianapolis Museum of Art.

Dr. Mehmet C. Kocakulah, associate professor of business, has had a second paper accepted for presentation at the 1988 Southeast Decision Sciences Institute annual meeting February 24-26 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. This paper, "Nursing Cost: A Time for Re-evaluation," will be presented in the Management Section of the meeting. It was co-authored by Ms. Norma Hagenow, director of nursing, and Ms. Francine Cope, a nursing department head, both at Terre Haute Regional Hospital.

Dr. Edward D. Marting, professor of business, was one of three speakers at a seminar for continuing professional education for accountants, held November 14 at Ivy Tech. Dr. Marting's topic was foreign exchange and multinational accounting. The seminar was sponsored by the American Society of Women Accountants.

Congratulations to Mrs. Suzanne Nicholson, director of Development and Alumni Affairs, who received the 1987 Distinguished Leader Award from Leadership Evansville. The award was presented at a public luncheon on Monday, November 16. Mrs. Nicholson helped to found Leadership Evansville in 1976 and served as its first president. An honorary member of the organization, she currently serves on the LE Board. In addition to local honors, Mrs. Nicholson received the Distinguished Alumni Award at the annual conference of the National Association of Community Leadership Organizations in September.

Mr. Curt Uebelhor, assistant director of the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art, has had his work featured in several exhibitions since September. He participated in "New Works New Artists No. 2" September 2-October 15 at The J.B. Speed Art Museum, Louisville; the "Flamboyance, Fragmentation and the Sublime" exhibition September 11-October 12 at the Water Tower in Louisville; the 11th annual National Invitational Exhibition, "Just-For-Fun," September 29 at Liberty National Bank, Louisville; and the "Urgent Messages" exhibition October 16 at the Chicago Public Library Cultural Center.

USI INCLEMENT WEATHER CANCELLATION NOTICE. Occasions when University functions will be cancelled will be extremely rare. Thus, even in severe weather -- heavy snow, ice storms, extreme cold -- the University's academic programs, courses, classes, and seminars will continue and administrative offices will remain open.

Even though inclement weather may result in hardship and inconvenience for students, faculty, and staff, the overall interests of the University are best served by keeping to the regular class schedule (day and night), except in the rarest circumstances. The primary consideration is the safety of students traveling to and from classes and conditions of area highways and city streets will be considered, along with campus conditions. The decision to cancel classes will be made by the Vice President for Academic Affairs. When such a decision is made, the following procedures will be observed:

- (A) All campus offices and departments will remain open and function on their normal schedules.
- (B) Members of the administrative and clerical/support staffs are expected to fulfill their University assignments.
- (C) Members of the faculty are expected to fulfill their responsibilities in pursuit of scholarship, in research activities, and in class preparation.

The decision to close administrative offices will be made by the University president. In that event, the departments which provide essential functions must continue to operate; departmental supervisors will be responsible for maintaining sufficient staff to accomplish these functions.

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY. Classes will be recessed on Wednesday, November 25, until Monday, November 30, for the Thanksgiving Holiday observance. The University will be closed on Thursday and Friday, November 26-27. Library service hours for the holiday will include:

Wednesday, November 25 -- Close at 4:30 p.m.
Thursday-Saturday, November 26-28 -- Closed
Sunday, November 29 -- Open 3:30 - 9 p.m.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE. An ecumenical Thanksgiving service will be at 12 noon Monday, November 23, in UC 351. Everyone is invited to attend.

PRIDE COLLEGE FAIR. Dr. Yosef A. Ben-Jochannan, author, lecturer and Egyptologist, will be the keynote dinner speaker for the third annual Minority College Fair to be held Saturday, November 21, at the University Center. Dr. Ben-Jochannan is an adjunct professor of history in the African Studies and Research Center at Cornell University. The fair, aimed at enhancing and promoting higher education among minority students within the University area, will begin at 1 p.m. It is sponsored by the USI Office of Admissions and PRIDE (People Responsible for Improving the Development of Education). Activities will include workshops on Financial Aid, Career Development, and Higher Education; the 5 p.m. dinner in the U.C. Dining Room; and the Eagles basketball game with IU/PU-Indianapolis, followed by a dance, sponsored by the Black Student Union. More than 30 universities, colleges, and technical institutions are expected to have representatives available to discuss their programs. For information, contact Ms. Kandace Hinton, USI admissions counselor, extension 1765.

CLEP TESTS. The Office of Admissions will administer CLEP tests on Thursday, November 19. Everyone who has registered for a test should report to Admissions at the appointed test time. For more information, contact Ms. Cindy Eskew, admissions counselor, extension 1765.

DISCOVER WORKSHOP. The USI Admissions Office and the Ivy Tech Admissions Office are cosponsoring a DISCOVER Workshop at McCullough Library on Saturday, November 21 from 10 - 11:30 a.m. The purpose of the workshop is to encourage and support adults considering attending college. Information on financial aid, program options, and career opportunities will be available.

RECYCLING COMPETITION. All USI clubs have been invited to participate in a recycling competition sponsored by Mr. Philip Tzsoppe of Tzsoppe Recycling Industries as a way to demonstrate that recycling not only benefits the environment but pays. The bi-weekly competition will involve collection of aluminum cans, newspapers, and glass containers. In addition to earnings from the collections, Mr. Tzsoppe will offer a $10 first prize, $5 second prize, and $3 third prize every two weeks to the club collecting the most pounds. The first deadline is Tuesday, November 24. If your club wants to participate, contact Mr. Tzsoppe, 477-9338, or Tzsoppe Industries, 476-6422, as soon as possible. Collection details can be obtained from the campus contact, Dr. Susan Wolfe, special part-time instructor in the humanities, at extension 1738.

ADVISORS PLEASE NOTE: Four sections of WEST 212X: The Western Tradition II, the new Humanities General Education sequence, are listed in a separate category at the beginning of the Humanities Division section of the Spring Semester schedule. The course's prerequisites are English 101 and Communications 101, but students do not have to have completed Western Tradition I before enrolling in this second course, which focuses on the more modern periods in our cultural history. Course description booklets are available now from the Humanities Division, extension 1734, or from Dr. John Gottcent, professor of English, extension 1750.

HUMANITIES FILM SERIES -- "Women In Love" (1969, 130 minutes) Director: Ken Russell; cast: Glenda Jackson, Oliver Reed, Alan Bates. Mr. Russell's atmospheric film focuses on the relationships between two men and two women and explores the range of sensuality that obsessed D. H. Lawrence and made him such a controversial figure in his day. The film will be shown at 2 and 6 p.m. Tuesday, November 24, in Forum I; it is free and open to the public.

SPORTS THIS WEEK. Cross Country -- USI will host the NCAA Division II National Championships at Oak Meadow Golf and Country Club on Saturday, November 21.

Volleyball -- Conference Tournament on Friday-Saturday, November 20-21.

WSWI PROGRAM SCHEDULE. The University radio station (AM 82) features "Special Assignment," an in-depth look on Fridays at the week's top stories by AP news, and "Newsweek on the Air," a Monday program of news analyses and interviews from the current magazine. Among other daily features are Midday Report, 12-12:30 p.m.; Afternoon Program of Rock (with hourly AP news updates), 12:30 p.m. to sign off; and Afternoon Report, 4-4:30 p.m. Saturday features are Symphony Hall, 9:30-10:30 a.m., Music from Oberlin, 10:30-11:30 a.m.; and Big Band Review with Joe Hulgus, 1-4 p.m. This week's programs include:
