FOUNDER'S DAY, FESTIVAL OF MUSIC SLATED AT NEW HARMONY

Two special events are on the schedule this weekend at Historic New Harmony -- the second annual Founder's Day picnic and the Evensong Service that will open the annual New Harmony Festival of Music.

The community picnic will get under way at 9 a.m. Sunday, August 5, and continue through fireworks at dusk. It will include boat rides, hikes, kids games, and entertainment by the Rebel Pride cloggers and the Travelaires.

The free Evensong Service will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday, August 5, at St. Stephen's Church. The second program will be the Phil Hagemann Awards Ceremony at 8 p.m. Tuesday, August 7, in Thrall's Opera House, an annual recognition of musical talent among Posey County youth. Premier Brass will be featured at 8 p.m. Friday, August 10, in Thrall's Opera House. The closing program will be a duo vocal recital at 8 p.m. Saturday, August 11, in St. Stephen's Church. The last two programs will have a $5 admission fee; children 12 and under will be admitted free.

IMPRESSIONISM IN ST. LOUIS. Friday, August 10, is the deadline to sign up for the Office of Continuing Education's August 25-26 trip to St. Louis to see 85 Impressionist masterpieces. The group will spend the night at the Drury Inn in the restored Union Station complex of shops, restaurants, and entertainment. Sunday will offer shopping at Plaza Frontenac. The $110 fee includes transportation, Impressionism ticket, and breakfast. Call extension 1989 for information or to register.

APPOINTMENT. Dr. Emmet D. Edwards, associate professor of business, has been appointed acting dean of the School of Business, filling a vacancy created by the resignation of Dr. Glenn A. Pitman, who has accepted a position at Grand Valley State University, Allendale, Michigan.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Mrs. Ginger Ramsden, coordinator of Children's Programs and Special Projects, has been appointed a member of the United Way Allocations Review Panel for Health and Day Care Agencies.

CONGRATULATIONS to Dr. Emmet D. Edwards, associate professor of business, on the birth of two grandchildren -- Ranger Eric Davis, born June 29 to Laird and Cheryl Edwards Davis and Rachel Lauren Stilley, born July 27 to Terry L. and Karen Edwards Stilley, all of Mt. Vernon, Indiana.

SYMPATHY. The University community extends its sympathy to Mr. Mark A. Fehrenbacher, stationary engineer, in the death July 25 of his father, Mr. Francis J. "Dutch" Fehrenbacher, 60, of Evansville.

FEW-WAIVER CLARIFICATION. The University's fee waiver policy allows an employee to take six credit hours per academic year -- all in one semester or divided as needed between fall and spring semesters. An employee also may take three hours in each of the three summer sessions, for a total of 15 hours per year.

DOWNTOWN AFTER SUNDOWN. "Classic Rock Night" will be featured Saturday, August 4, in the outdoor entertainment program on Evansville's Walkway. Undercover will play at 7 p.m., comedians will perform at 8 p.m., and the Fabulous Starlettes will play at 9 p.m. Admission is $5 per person; tickets are available at the door or in advance by calling Center City Corporation, 424-2986.

NEW HARMONY THEATRE

The final performances of New Harmony Theatre's second Season 1990 production -- Mr. John Patrick's comedy, The Curious Savage -- will be presented Friday and Saturday, August 3-4, in Murphy Auditorium. The season finale, Painting Churches, will open Friday, August 10.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays and 2 p.m. Sundays. Tickets are $10 for general admission, $8 for students and senior citizens, and are available at the Murphy Auditorium box office, 812/682-3115, or make reservations in the School of Liberal Arts, extension 1635.

YOUNG ABE LINCOLN

The Young Abe Lincoln outdoor musical drama will be presented at 8 p.m. daily, except Mondays, through Sunday, August 26. The $8.50 tickets are available to the USI community on a two-for-two basis -- buy two for $17 for any performance and get two free. Young Abe tickets are available at the USI cashier's window.

NEW NOTICE FOR TOLL-FREE SERVICE. The toll-free number for Admissions and Financial Aid offices has been changed to 800/467-1965. Calls to this number will not be transferred to other departments within the University.

A second 800 number has been established, which rings at the switchboard. All incoming calls to this number will be transferred by the switchboard operator only to authorized extensions. If you feel you need authorization for use of this 800 number, please contact Mr. David A. Goldenberg, assistant purchasing director, extension 1799, for detail and costs associated with use of the number.

MASH TELEPHONES ON LINE. Telephones at MASH and Campus Apartments have been brought on line with the University system. The numbers to reach the two student housing units now are 468-2000 for MASH and 468-2300 for Campus.
