

Coupon offered to USI employees for The New Harmony Theatre Season 93

USI employees are invited to use the coupon in this issue of University Notes to see professional theatre productions in New Harmony, Indiana this summer. The New Harmony Theatre is becoming a warm weather tradition as theatre patrons and vacationers enjoy the shows running Wednesday through Saturday evenings and Sunday matinees.

The popular musical Hot 'N' Cole has received rave reviews. Evansville Courier critic Roger McBain wrote, "The revue opens with an eclectic array of Cole's works, ranging from the comic social commentary of "Anything Goes" to the sumptuous romance of "In the Still of the Night" to the clever silliness of "The Oyster," which follows a lowly shellfish's social rise and fall after it lands on a rich lady's plate."

Marvin's Room, an uplifting and moving comedy, opens Friday, July 9, in Murphy Auditorium. It is being directed by Steven Williford, artistic director for The New Harmony Theatre and director of USI Theatre. It has a nine-member cast.

Other upcoming summer productions include Tintypes, opening July 23, and A Streetcar Named Desire, opening August 6.

A coupon for $2 off the $12 New Harmony Theatre ticket price is in University Notes. The coupon is good for any Wednesday, Thursday or Sunday performance this season. Treat yourself, friends and family to song-and-dance spectaculars, comedies, and thought-provoking drama.

THE NEW HARMONY THEATRE

Big River now playing

Big River, a musical based on Mark Twain's timeless Adventures of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn, opened July 2 at the Lincoln Amphitheatre in Lincoln City. The award-winning musical was written by William Hauptman, with the score by Roger Miller. The action centers on Huck's Mississippi River journey with Jim, the runaway slave.

Midsummer Night's Stroll
Evenings of Art in New Harmony

Some of New Harmony's artistic treasures will be highlighted on the seventh annual Midsummer Night's Stroll: folk art paintings by Jacob Maentel in the Jaquess Parlor, contemporary works of art by two regional artists in the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art, beautifully detailed nineteenth century lithographs of Native Americans in the Maximilian-Bodmer Collection, and religious sculptures in the Roofless Church.

The walking tour, which begins at The Atheneum/Visitors' Center at 6:30 p.m. on July 6, 13, 20, and 27, will be directed by a commemorative booklet and supplemented by tour guides leading tours of five buildings. The stroll concludes with a reception at the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art.

Tickets are $6 for adults and $4 for children ages 7-17 and may be purchased at The Atheneum/Visitors' Center between 6:30 and 7:30 p.m. Members of the New Harmony Society are admitted free. For more information call (812) 682-4488.

The Midsummer Night's Stroll is sponsored by Historic New Harmony, a unified program of the University of Southern Indiana and the Division of State Museums and Historic Sites.

New Harmony Gallery Presentations

New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Arts presents the work of Bloomington, Indiana sculptor, Dale Enochs and Seattle photographer, Christine Flavin, opening July 11 and running through August 18.

Each artist derives inspiration from architecture, both ancient and contemporary. Enochs will show large carved stone sculptures. With an M.F.A. from Indiana University, Enochs has shown his works throughout the midwest, including a recent exhibition at Kay Garvey Gallery in Chicago. He is represented by Ruschman Gallery in Indianapolis. In 1990, Enochs was commissioned through New Harmony Gallery to create a large scale memorial sculpture on the grounds of Deaconess Hospital in Evansville.

Christine Flavin, formerly of St. Louis, is a freelance photographer who will show her elegant silverprints of abstracted architecture. Ms. Flavin was vice-president and studio director at Martin Schweig Gallery in St. Louis and taught photography in the St. Louis Junior College district.

The exhibition will open Sunday, July 11, with a reception from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. The artists will give an informal gallery talk at 2:30 p.m. The public is cordially invited. This exhibition is made possible by a grant from the Indiana Arts Commission and support from the University of Southern Indiana. Gallery hours are 9:00 to 5:00 Tuesday through Saturday; 1:00 to 5:00 on Sunday; closed Monday. During July and August, the Gallery will also be open until 7:30 p.m. on Friday and Saturday nights, before New Harmony Theatre performances. For further information call New Harmony Gallery at 812-682-3156, now toll-free from Evansville.

USI licence plates

The minimum order of 200 USI license plates remains in effect if the University is to continue in the Indiana Department of Motor Vehicles' specialized plate program.

August 15 is the deadline for the Alumni Affairs office to obtain 200 applicants for the USI plates. A $25 tax-deductible contribution is required when ordering or renewing your plate. Call Alumni Affairs, extension 1924, for information or to request a plate application form.

An official plate certificate will be mailed in December, to be presented to the license branch office to obtain plates, starting in January 1994. A $10 per-plate processing fee will be charged at that time, in addition to regular plate fees.

Riverfest Craft Fair for children

Volunteers are needed to guide children in the making of easy craft items from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., Saturday, August 7 in downtown Evansville. For more information call Center City (424-2986) and ask to speak to Michelle or Theo.

I am committed to honesty, except where sizes are concerned. The more larceny involved the better. If a bathing suit could slipcover Rhode Island and is marked, "Size three junior/petite/toddler," so be it.
