HUMANITIES SERIES TO FEATURE KARL HAAS. Mr. Karl Haas, whose "Adventures in Good Music" is heard on National Public Radio by millions of music lovers throughout the world, will headline a series of special programs to be offered for students and the community this spring by the University of Southern Indiana Division of Humanities. Mr. Haas, a concert pianist, will visit the campus and New Harmony on Thursday and Friday, March 19-20, as USI's 1987 Enlow Distinguished Scholar. He will present lecture-performances on campus and a recital at Murphy Auditorium.

The series opens Tuesday, March 3, when Ms. Ellen Lanyon and Mr. Roland Ginzel, painters and printmakers, will be guests for the Visiting Artists program at USI and New Harmony. Ms. Lanyon is an award-winning artist who has been adjunct associate professor of painting at Cooper Union. Mr. Ginzel is a former art educator who studied in Rome under a Fulbright Fellowship.

Dr. Eileen Bender, assistant dean of faculties and associate professor of English at Indiana University-South Bend, will lecture on the uses of food in literature in programs at USI and McCullough Library at Washington Square on Thursday, April 2.

In early April (date still undecided), Mr. Philip Hagemann, a Posey County native who is a composer and conductor now living in Manhattan, will return to present two one-act operas -- a new arrangement and English translation of Debussy's "The Prodigal Son" and an original opera by Mr. Hagemann, an adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's one-act play, "The Six of Calais."

Mr. Franz Schulze, an educator and art critic and historian, will lecture on "American Architecture: The Rise of the Skyscraper," on Thursday, April 16, at the Atheneum in New Harmony.

A poetry reading on Thursday, April 30, by Ms. Bettie Sellers, Goolsby Professor of English at Young Harris College, will close the series. Ms. Sellers has been active in various humanities and poetry organizations in Georgia.

Two related presentations will add to the Humanities Celebration. The USI Theatre's spring production, J. B. Priestly's mystery, "Dangerous Corner," will be presented Friday-Sunday, February 27-March 1 and March 6-8 at the USI Playhouse on Igleheart Avenue, while the annual Student Art Show will open Sunday, April 19, in the University Conference Center.

All programs are free except the concert by Mr. Haas, the operas by Mr. Hagemann, and the USI Theatre production. In addition to the Enlow Distinguished Scholar funding, the program series is being supported by the USI Foundation, New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art, and the Indiana Committee for the Humanities.

The series is the Division of Humanities contribution to the USI Community of Scholars programs that bring noted scholars and artistic talents to the campus to provide the opportunity for intellectual and cultural experience beyond the classroom for both the students and the community. The series is being coordinated by Dr. James Blevins, chairman of the Division of Humanities, Dr. Sherry Darrell, associate professor of English, Mr. Matthew Graham, assistant professor of English, and Ms. Kathryn Waters, assistant professor of art. For information, contact Mr. Graham at extensions 1953 or 1735.

DISTINGUISHED PROFESSOR LECTURE. Dr. Wanda Best Hibbitts, professor of business at USI, will present the Distinguished Professor Lecture at 3 p.m. Friday, February 20, in Forum I. Her topic will be "Higher Education and the Kondratieff Wave" -- a 50-year economic cycle first theorized by a Russian economist, Mr. Nakoli Kondratieff, dealing with various relationships to socioeconomic, political, and higher education events. A wine and cheese reception will follow the lecture. Dr. Hibbitts was selected for the 1986 National City Bank Distinguished Professor Award, a recognition for faculty who have demonstrated a dedication to teaching and a quest for excellence. It is supported by a $1,000 grant from National City Bank. Dr. Hibbitts has been with the USI faculty since 1970 and plans to retire at the end of this semester.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Robert L. Reid, vice president for Academic Affairs, has been appointed to the Editorial Advisory Committee of the Indiana Magazine of History.

On February 2, Dr. Reid and Dr. Wes Face, chancellor for Academic Affairs at the University of Wisconsin-Stout, presented a workshop on academic planning at the West Coast meeting of the Academic Affairs Resource Center of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities.

CONGRATULATIONS -- to Ms. Nancy Allen, coordinator of donor relations in the Development Office, and Mr. Ken Johnson, who is associated with a Mt. Vernon insurance and real estate agency, on their marriage Saturday, February 14.

BEST WISHES are extended from the University community to Mrs. Ann Humphrey, director of the Publications Office, who is recuperating in Indianapolis following surgery. Her address is Room 4087, Methodist Hospital, Senate Avenue, Indianapolis, IN 46202.

ROBOTS TO STAR AT SUPER SATURDAY. The first of two spring Super Saturday for Kids programs at the University will get under way at 9 a.m. Saturday, February 21, when youngsters from kindergarten through eighth grades will learn how the technology that produced R2D2 and C3PO of "Star Wars" fame affects our daily lives. Discussion will include the history of robots as seen in literature and movies, current applications in industry and space, and the future of robotics at home and at work. For information, call the Office of Continuing Education, extension 1863.

HONORS DAY AWARDS. See page 10 of this week's University Notes for guidelines on making nominations for the 1987 President's Medal and the Liberal Arts Award.

IU PROFESSOR TO SPEAK. Dr. Della Cook, associate professor of bioanthropology at Indiana University, will be featured lecturer Tuesday, March 3, in programs at the University and Angel Mounds State Historic Site. She will present an illustrated lecture, "What Can We Learn from Human Remains?" at 11 a.m. in SC 292. Her illustrated lecture at 7:30 p.m. at Angel Mounds is entitled "Little Pigeon Creek: A Specialized Late Archaic Site and Cemetery." Dr. Cook is the author of numerous books and articles on the subjects of paleopathology, human osteology, mortuary practices, and demography among the prehistoric American Indians.

TV ANCHORMAN TO SPEAK. The yet-to-be-named communications club will hear Mr. Steve Alexander, anchorman for WTVW-Channel 7, at its third meeting at 4 p.m. Wednesday, February 25, in L100. He will discuss television news and careers in television journalism. All students are welcome to attend the meeting. For more information, contact Ms. Michelle Saxton, assignment editor of the University newspaper, The Shield.

USI THEATRE'S SPRING PRODUCTION. The USI Theatre group will present Mr. J. B. Priestley's "Dangerous Corner" at 8 p.m. Friday through Sunday, February 27-March 1 and March 6-8, at the USI Playhouse, Igleheart and Barker avenues. Mrs. Laura Hubbell, special part-time instructor in the Division of Humanities, is director. Tickets are $4 for general admission; $3 for students, faculty, staff, and senior citizens; a group rate of $2.50 per person is available for parties of 10 or more persons. Call (812) 464-1734 or 422-3970 for reservations.

FINANCIAL AID WORKSHOP DATE WRONG. The wrong date inadvertently was reported for a Financial Aid Workshop at C. K. Newsome Community Center. The program will be held at 6 p.m. Wednesday, February 25 (NOT February 18).

SECRETARIES SEEK SCHOLARSHIP APPLICANTS. The Secretaries and Associates Club now is seeking applicants for its two $500 scholarships ($250 each semester). Nominees must have the following qualifications to be eligible: be a full-time student one semester prior to and for the period of scholarship use; maintain at least a 3.0 grade point average; be in need of financial assistance (may be receiving other financial aid, however). Club members will vote on recipients recommended by the Scholarship Committee. Application forms may be picked up from Mrs. Jackie Pender at the switchboard; Mrs. Joani Jost, secretary in the Administration Office; or in any academic division office. The deadline for return of the application is Friday, March 6.

FURNITURE, CLOTHING NEEDED. The USI Theatre group needs a variety of items to help build their furnishings and wardrobe for annual spring and fall productions. Besides period furniture, the theatre group can use period clothing such as formal wear, hats, shoes, and other accessories. Anyone interested in donating such items may call (812) 464-1734 or 422-3970.

NEW EMPLOYEE PROGRAM. The Board of Trustees recently approved the implementation of an Employee Assistance Program for University employees and members of their families. CONCERN: EAP is a comprehensive employee assistance program affiliated with Deaconess Hospital and provides short-term counseling for such problems as stress, financial difficulty, or marital or family relationships. The program is a confidential service that protects the privacy of the participants. Orientation sessions have been scheduled in L100 to help USI employees learn more about CONCERN: EAP and how the service can benefit you. The final two sessions will be held at 10 and 10:45 a.m. Friday, Februar 20.

HONORS DAY PLANS UNDER WAY. Preparations now are being made for the 1987 USI Honors Day. Due to a recent change in the administrative calendar, Honors Day will fall on Tuesday, April 21. The program will be at 9:30 a.m. in the Physical Activities Center, with a reception to follow. Dr. Robert L. Reid, vice president for Academic Affairs, advises that faculty should set aside only the 9:30-11 a.m. period for Honors Day activities (canceling 9:30 to 10:45 a.m. class only). All other classes will be held on the normal schedule. Dr. Susan Wolfe, a special part-time instructor in the Division of Humanities, is coordinator of this year's program. Questions may be directed to her at extensions 1738 or 1735, or at 473-9018.

SECRETARIES TO HEAR COLOR ANALYST. The Secretaries and Associates Club will meet at 11:45 a.m. Thursday, February 19, in UC 350, with Ms. Dorrice Pemberton of BeautiControl to provide a slide presentation on color analyses for different types of bodies, with suggestions on clothing and make up. Buy or bring your lunch and enjoy dessert provided by club hostesses: Mrs. Doris Hollis, secretary in the Division of Education; Ms. Kristi Hollis, secretary in the Personnel Office, and Mrs. Mary McGrew, secretary in the Division of Business.

CAREER ENHANCEMENT CLINIC. The USI Personnel Club will sponsor a Career Enhancement Clinic on Wednesday, February 25, with four guest speakers slated to offer advice to job seekers about entering the work force. The program will start at 9 a.m. in UC 350-351. Interested persons are invited to attend the four 35- to 40-minute sessions in which respective speakers/topics will be Mr. Sam Woehler, employment manager at George Koch Sons, Inc., "Resume Preparation;" Mr. Robert Wilson, manager of human resources at Whirlpool Corporation, "The Interview Process;" Mr. Allen Mounts, a USI graduate who now is vice president for human resources at Keller-Crescent Company, "College Recruiting;" and Mr. Jesse Hill, personnel manager for American/National Can Corporation, Evansville Division, "Employee Compensation."

RELIGION AND THE UNIVERSITY. Dr. Donald Pitzer, professor of history, will lead a discussion on "Millenialism in Communal Societies" at the Religion and the University meeting Monday, February 23, in UC 308. The group will meet at 12:30 p.m. for this week only. All interested faculty and staff members are invited to join the group.

HUMANITIES FILM SERIES. "Citizen Kane" (1941, 119 minutes) Director: Orson Welles; cast: Orson Welles, Dorothy Comingore, Joseph Cotton, Everett Sloane, Ray Collins, Agnes Moorehead, George Coulouris, Ruth Warrick. This film is considered by many critics to be America's greatest film masterpiece both because of its technical virtuosity and the significance of its theme -- Kane, a wealthy and powerful American, fails to live up to his potential because he is personally flawed. The film will be shown at 2 and 6 p.m. Tuesday, February 24, in Forum I; it is free and open to the public.

"CELEBRATE EVANSVILLE 175" -- Current activities for Evansville's 175th birthday celebration will include:

February 24-April 10 -- Contemporary Black Artists of Indiana exhibition at the Evansville Museum of Arts and Science.

RECRUITING INTERVIEWS. The following organization will have representatives on campus to conduct job interviews in the coming week: Thursday, February 19 -- Mid-West Federal Savings & Loan; Friday, February 20 -- Aristokraft; Tuesday, February 24 -- Research Systems; Wednesday, February 25 -- Target.

BOOST THE LADY EAGLES. The women's basketball team will seek to avenge the January 6 triple-overtime loss to the University of Evansville when the teams meet in a rematch at 7:30 p.m. today (February 18) at UE. Fans are urged to wear red and bring noisemakers. There will be a team send-off at 5:30 p.m. at the Physical Activities Center main entrance.

SPORTS THIS WEEK. Men's Basketball -- Kentucky Wesleyan at USI, 7:30 p.m. Saturday, February 21.

Women's Basketball -- USI at UE, 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, February 18; Kentucky Wesleyan at USI, 5:15 p.m. Saturday, February 21.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS. Thursday, February 19, is the roster deadline and captain's meeting for two events scheduled in the spring intramural sports program -- a MASH and Campus Resident Rally Night on Thursday, February 26, and Greek Night on Thursday, March 5. Both events are open to all USI students, faculty, and staff members. Call the Intramural and Recreation Office, extension 1942, for information.

WSWI PROGRAM SCHEDULE. PRESIDENT'S MEDAL

The President's Medal will be presented for the fourth time during the 1987 Honors Day ceremony. The award will be given to a graduating senior who has demonstrated a commitment toward excellence on the academic level as well as in service to the University and the community. Information and supporting material already has been sent to students who qualify academically. Applicants must have a grade point average of at least 3.70, they must have completed at least 75 hours at the University of Southern Indiana at the time of application, and they must have applied for graduation. Applicants should send three letters of recommendation which attest to character as well as achievements to Mr. Larry Goss, chairperson of the Student Academic Affairs Committee. Two of the letters should come from faculty members (one from the student's division is recommended), and one from a personal source. The letter should include an evaluation of the student based on the following criteria:

- (a) Character -- integrity, honesty, professionalism, maturity;
- (b) Accomplishments -- both important achievements and significant endeavors;
- (c) Service -- to the University and the community; and
- (d) Promise -- not only for succeeding in career or graduate studies, but also (and perhaps most important) for serving one's fellow man.

Applications should be submitted by March 20. The Student Academic Affairs Committee will conduct personal interviews with the leading candidates and select a recipient. The committee chairperson will notify the President's Office, which will notify the student of the award.

LIBERAL ARTS AWARD

The Liberal Arts Award, to be presented for the sixth year, is committed to recognizing and promoting the ideals of liberal learning and the pursuit of excellence in (a) academic achievement in the liberal arts and sciences, (b) a noteworthy adherence to those virtues that mark a person of integrity, and (c) the pursuit of excellence in physical activities. Award criteria require that a candidate:

1. Must be at least a junior and enrolled as a full-time student at the time the recommendation is made.
2. May be a major in any degree-granting program at the University. (Students are not disqualified by virtue of their professional and vocational goals. They are qualified by virtue of the overall integrity of their student life.)
3. Will have demonstrated achievement in reading, writing, and mathematics, and a well-balanced, well-sequenced involvement in those areas constituting the liberal arts and sciences.
4. Will be asked to write and submit an essay on a topic related to liberal learning.
5. Should be a well-balanced individual, exemplified in mind, character, and body.

All faculty are asked to encourage qualified students from all academic divisions to apply. A dossier -- including relevant materials such as letters of nomination and/or endorsement, transcript, vita, testimonials, and any other materials the candidate deems applicable -- should be submitted no later than March 20 to Mr. Larry Goss, chairperson of the Student Academic Affairs Committee, which will evaluate the applicants.
