

INDIANA STATE University
Notes
EVANSVILLE CAMPUS

auditions are required and singers with any background are urged to sign up for this course. The University Singers rehearse from 12:30 to 2:00 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The Mid America Singers, ISUE's popular show choir, will be expanding their repertoire with a special sequence of numbers from the thirties. The Mid America Singers will be touring to smaller Indiana communities with a $1500 grant received from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Indiana Arts Commission.

Rehearsals are held daily from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. and scholarship money is available. Sopranos are especially needed. Mid America Stage Band also has openings for saxophone players. Auditions for second semester will be held on Wednesday, January 5, 1977, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. Those desiring to audition for Mid America Singers should sign up for an audition time with the Humanities secretary and prepare at least two numbers, one in a slow tempo and one in a fast tempo.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS. On December 6, Helen Sands, Associate Professor of Communications, conducted a Readers Theatre Workshop for teachers of English, junior high through high school, in the Vanderburgh County School Corporation. Mike Keith, Veterans Affairs Office, and ISUE student Rick Ivy presented a cutting from Samuel Beckett's Endgame to illustrate readers theatre, while students Linda Duncan and Dan Seeber prepared a selection from Inherit the Wind.

The workshop was a part of an in-service training program for the Vanderburgh County School Corporation and was attended by English teachers from parochial as well as public schools.

NEW FACES. Miss Martha Lynn Peters, a 1976 graduate of Indiana State University Evansville, has accepted the position of Science Storeroom Supervisor in the Division of Science and Math.

Miss Peters was a student worker in the chemistry lab while attending ISUE.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE. The following positions are available as of December 20, 1976. Indiana State University Evansville is subject to the requirements of Executive Order 11246 and is an affirmative action employer. All interested persons are encouraged to apply. Contact the Personnel Office to apply except where otherwise indicated.

SINGING ORGANIZATIONS MAKE PLANS. Jon Carlson, ISUE's Director of Music, has announced plans for spring semester for the University Singers and the Mid America Singers, ISUE's two singing organizations.

The University Singers, re-formed in the fall semester to perform outstanding choral literature of all periods and styles, will be doing Brahms' Liebesieder Waltzes, Kemner's Ezekiel (a contemporary piece with a jazz synthesized tape accompaniment), Mozart's Regina Coeli and several selections by Stephen Collins Foster in the spring semester. No auditions are required and singers with any background are urged to sign up for this course. The University Singers rehearse from 12:30 to 2:00 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The Mid America Singers, ISUE's popular show choir, will be expanding their repertoire with a special sequence of numbers from the thirties. The Mid America Singers will be touring to smaller Indiana communities with a $1500 grant received from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Indiana Arts Commission.

Rehearsals are held daily from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. and scholarship money is available. Sopranos are especially needed. Mid America Stage Band also has openings for saxophone players. Auditions for second semester will be held on Wednesday, January 5, 1977, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. Those desiring to audition for Mid America Singers should sign up for an audition time with the Humanities secretary and prepare at least two numbers, one in a slow tempo and one in a fast tempo.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS. On December 6, Helen Sands, Associate Professor of Communications, conducted a Readers Theatre Workshop for teachers of English, junior high through high school, in the Vanderburgh County School Corporation. Mike Keith, Veterans Affairs Office, and ISUE student Rick Ivy presented a cutting from Samuel Beckett's Endgame to illustrate readers theatre, while students Linda Duncan and Dan Seeber prepared a selection from Inherit the Wind.

The workshop was a part of an in-service training program for the Vanderburgh County School Corporation and was attended by English teachers from parochial as well as public schools.

NEW FACES. Miss Martha Lynn Peters, a 1976 graduate of Indiana State University Evansville, has accepted the position of Science Storeroom Supervisor in the Division of Science and Math.

Miss Peters was a student worker in the chemistry lab while attending ISUE.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE. The following positions are available as of December 20, 1976. Indiana State University Evansville is subject to the requirements of Executive Order 11246 and is an affirmative action employer. All interested persons are encouraged to apply. Contact the Personnel Office to apply except where otherwise indicated.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE (CONTINUED).

FACULTY VACANCIES

Finance Faculty Person Division of Business

Doctorate and teaching experienced required. Teach undergraduate and MBA courses. Available August 27, 1977. Apply with resume to Dr. Kenneth B. Settle, Chairman, Division of Business.

Physical Chemist Division of Science & Math

Must be capable of teaching instrumental analysis at senior level and general chemistry. Begin Fall, 1977. PhD required. University teaching experience, including physical chemistry, required. Apply with resume and references to Dr. Melvin Denner, Acting Chairman, Division of Science and Math.

ADMINISTRATIVE VACANCIES

Systems Analyst-Programmer

Administrative Services (Computer Center)

Bachelor's degree or relevant equivalent combination of experience/training necessary. Experience preferred in areas of college systems analysis and design using disk and tape files. Cobol and Fortran language programming capabilities required. Experience with IBM 360 and/or 370 series operating under OS and/or DOS preferred. Person will work closely with the University faculty and administration to develop computer data systems. Some programming required. Apply with resume to Personnel Office.

Admissions Counselor

Administrative Services

Student-centered, enthusiastic individual with management and communicative skills who is interested in counseling with prospective students, representing the University to the public, and promoting special programs on campus. A minimum of a Bachelor's Degree required. Some college related experience working directly with students preferred. Apply with resume to Dr. Donald Bennett, Vice President for Administration.