

For Immediate Release

February 28, 2002

University of Southern Indiana looking for talent for SpringFest

A University of Southern Indiana student committee is planning SpringFest on Friday, April 19 and Saturday, April 20 on the campus. Carnival rides, food booths, game booths, a book sale, medieval re-enactments, and entertainment on the main stage will be features of the two-day event.

The students are inviting area bands, local choral groups, magicians, clowns, and other acts to participate in the spring festival. Entertainment will start at 11 a.m. and continue to 10 p.m. on April 19 and start at 10 a.m. and continue to 10 p.m. on April 20.

Tim Buecher, director of Career Counseling and advisor for SpringFest, said, "This is a great opportunity for local groups to showcase their talent and gain recognition. We are looking for a wide variety of music and entertainment. I'll be glad to talk with groups or individuals who want to join us in what we hope will be the largest student-sponsored event in the history of the University of Southern Indiana."

Buecher can be reached at 812/465-1136 or by e-mail at tbuecher@usi.edu.

Sent to: Shield; University Notes; Inside USI; Rebecca Coudret (Courier & Press); Posey County News; Henderson Gleaner; WBNL; WIKY; WNIN; WRAY; WKDQ; WGBF; Our Times; USI Web