COURSE EVALUATION CARDS AVAILABLE

IBM Format Course Evaluation Cards are available from the division offices or from Brad Awe, Instructor in Speech.

ISUE RECEIVES GRANT FOR ART SCULPTURE

ISUE received a $4,000 grant from Holtzmann & E. Silverman, architectural consulting firm, to be used for an art sculpture. ISUE student, Jim Greer, is the designer of the circular steel and chrome sculpture presently being constructed by five selected students under the supervision of John McNaughton, Assistant Professor of Art. The completed sculpture will be displayed in Parkside Terrace opposite the Anthony Oaks Memorial Park.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

KATHY WILL, Assistant to President, is attending the American College Public Relations Association 1974 National Conference in Atlanta, Georgia, at the Regency Hyatt Atlanta July 9 through 11.

DAVID DEEG, Assistant Professor of Music, was elected President of the Indiana University School of Music Alumni Association for the 1974-75 year.

DARREL E. BIGHAM, Assistant Professor of History, is the author of an article appearing in the June 1974 issue of Indiana Magazine of History, vol. 70, published by the Indiana University History Dept. in cooperation with the Indiana Historical Society. The article, entitled "Charles Leich and Co.: A Note on the Dilemma of German Americans During World War I," is the story of an Evansville family of German ancestry who saw the crushing weight of World War I nearly suffocate a family business.

NEW FACES

Mary C. Higginbottom has accepted the position of Secretary in the Library replacing Sue Thayer. Originally from Plainfield, Illinois, Mary attended Joliet Junior College in Joliet, Illinois, and received her LPN Certificate from Vincennes University. Prior to coming to ISUE, Mary was employed as a shift supervisor at Dellaren Nursing Care Center in Evansville. She enjoys participating in all types of outdoor activities.
