AMERICAN ISSUES FORUM. Morton J. Frisch, Professor of Political Science at Northern Illinois University, will be the featured speaker in the American Issues class for December 3, 1975. The topic of his presentation will be "The Origins and Nature of Representative Government in America."

Dr. Frisch, Fulbright Professor of Political Science at the University of Stockholm in 1963-64 and former faculty member of the College of William and Mary in Virginia, has co-edited and co-authored The Thirties with Martin Diamond, American Political Thought with Richard G. Stevens, The Political Thought of American Statesmen with Richard G. Stevens, and has recently published Franklin D. Roosevelt: The Contribution of the New Deal to American Political Thought and Practice. He has published essays in the area of American political thought in Ethics, the Journal of Politics and the Review of Politics.

Quentin Davis, Assistant Professor of Political Science, will be the featured speaker December 10, discussing "The President: An Elected Executive," under the broad topic "A More Perfect Union."

HUMANITIES FORUM. Ms. Marilyn Durham, Evansville author of The Man Who Loved Cat Dancing and Dutch Uncle, will be the featured speaker for the next Humanities Forum scheduled for Thursday, December 4 at 1:00 p.m. in the Rare Books Room in the Library. The topic of her talk will be "The Evolution of a Novel," in which she will discuss the growth of her novels, from the germination of ideas to their flowering in the form of best sellers. The Humanities Forum is open to the public. Meetings generally do not exceed one hour in length and include ample time for questions.

WISUE CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY. The Women of Indiana State University Evansville would like to invite all faculty children and their parents to the annual WISUE Christmas party. The Christmas party will be held in the Forum on December 6, 1975 from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. Lots of activities and goodies are being planned. There will be games, crafts, cartoons and more for the children. A surprise visit by Santa Claus is expected, plus a small gift for each child. Several new activities are in the making for parents, and all those attending will enjoy the trio of musicians and caroling. Co-chairpersons for the event are Linda Wilhelmus and Patricia Like. If you have any questions, please contact one of these people at 867-3773 or 425-6041.

GUEST SPEAKER ON CAMPUS. Dr. Robert Kress, Professor of Philosophy and Theology at the University of Evansville, will present "Where Religion Fits in a Technological Society" on December 10 at 1:00 p.m. in the Rare Books Room in the Library. The session will be open to the public.

EAGLES PLAY FIRST HOME GAME DECEMBER 6.

The ISUE Eagles will play Transylvania University for the first home game on Saturday, December 6 at 8:00 p.m., Central Arena. The Athletic Department wishes to notify the administration, faculty and staff of ISUE that upon request, they will be given two complimentary reserved bench seats for the basketball season. Anyone wishing to purchase chairback seats should notify the Athletic Office as soon as possible. Come and cheer the Eagles on at the start of the new season!

REGIONAL MEDICAL FORUM TO BE HELD IN EVANSTVILLE.

Patrick J. V. Corcoran, M.D., Director, Indiana University School of Medicine, Evansville Center, will host the Regional Medical Forum scheduled to meet in Evansville at 3:00 p.m. in the Executive Inn on Monday, December 8, 1975. Among matters to be discussed are the impact of the Indiana Statewide System for Medical Education, the future of state's Family Practice Residency Program, community incentives for attracting physicians, the role of comprehensive health care planning, and licensure standards for foreign medical graduates.

A series of regional forums has been slated during November and December, and will take place across the state of Indiana. The Regional Medical Forums, sponsored by four important agencies concerned with health care, have been scheduled to learn what people think of the health care delivery system in Indiana, and to foster candid discussion of relevant issues. Concerned citizens will be given ample opportunity to hear and be heard on the issues.

Faculty and students who are interested in attending the forum on December 8 are welcome without pre-registration. If you have any questions concerning details, please contact Dr. Corcoran at 479-2061.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR MENTALLY ILL.
