Ten University of Southern Indiana students have won slots with the popular Mid-America Singers, chosen during auditions in which 27 students participated.

The Mid-America Singers is a group of 24 vocal and instrumental artists known for their versatile musicality and lively choreography. They are USI's choral, pop, and madrigal groups rolled into one, performing under the tutelage of the director/choreographer team of Sue and Jack Schriber. Mrs. Schriber is USI director of music.

The Mid-America singers perform annually in the Hoosier college and university exhibition area at the Indiana State Fair. They also have been invited to perform at the Indiana Society meeting in Chicago and Disney World in Orlando, Florida. One of their popular campus programs is the early December Christmas Madrigal Feaste that fills the USI Dining Center for five evenings, with guests enjoying a yuletide celebration reminiscent of Renaissance England.

The new students in Mid-America Singers this fall include Dave Angle, tenor; Darla Burlash, alto; Chris Collier, tenor; Mike Galvin and Doug Hamilton, bass singers; Dena Haney and Stacy Pohl, sopranos; Dave Rinehart, tenor; Tiffany Schriber, soprano; and Brad Spencer, guitar.

They join veterans Julie Braun, alto; Mike Brauser, tenor; Pete Bryan, bass singer; Scott Dixon and Julie Nesbitt, keyboards; Pam Massie, bass player; Paula Rogers, alto; Nick Seifert, bass singer; Dot Wade, alto; and Holly Wade, soprano.
