PUMPKIN POWER. The spirit of Halloween is prevalent in the Art Department this month.

On Saturday, October 26 the ISUE Art Club will deposit two tons of pumpkins on the corner of 4th and Main Street on the walkway in Downtown Evansville. The Great Pumpkin himself will be on hand to autograph pumpkins, and twenty artists from ISUE will be on hand to personally carve pumpkins for you -- monster pumpkins, portrait pumpkins, paisley pumpkins, or just about any kind of pumpkin you wanted but were afraid to ask about.

Evansville officials, dignitaries, and personalities including Marcia Yockey, John Ziccardi, Minas Christian, Vance Thomas, Wynnie Slezak, Peggy Jack, Roger Zion, Glenn Ives, and Harry Thompson will be on hand to assist in pumpkin carving. Pumpkins will be carved prior to the event by David Rice, Mayor Russell Lloyd, David Jackson, and Phil Hayes. They will be raffled off on Saturday at 3:00 p.m., the pumpkins, not the dignitaries.

Help the Art Club with their Pumpk-in Power project. All proceeds from the event will be used for the ISUE art scholarships and equipment fund. Pumpkins will be available from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., with the celebrity carve-in scheduled for High Noon (12:00-1:00) and the raffle drawing at 3:00 p.m.
