

INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY EVANSVILLE
"Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Employer"
UNIVERSITY NOTES VOL. IX NO. 35 MAY 14, 1975
Editor, Kathy Will; Associate Editor, Judy Rogers

SNACK BAR OPEN FOR SUMMER. The Cafeteria is now closed for the summer months; however, according to Sam Cookman, Food Services Director, the Snack Bar will be open daily, Monday-Friday, from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

The Sunday Buffet will continue throughout the summer months. The buffets on Sunday have been growing in popularity. Over 600 people came to ISUE for their Mothers Day dinner creating lines extending from the buffet table down the stairs and reaching through the outside doors onto the patio. Mr. Cookman reports having to turn approximately 100 people away when it became apparent the food wouldn't serve the multitude.

STUDENT TEACHERS HOLD INFORMAL COFFEE. An Informal Coffee was held in the Rare Books Room last Wednesday, May 7 by the ISUE student teachers. Attending the coffee were the students' critic teachers, principals from their respective schools and ISUE faculty and division heads. Spring flowers adorned the Rare Books Room as the coffee's decorating theme. Janet Greer, Instructor in Education, was in charge of the Informal Coffee at which 75 persons were in attendance.

FIRST INDIANA BICENTENNIAL EVENT PLANNED. Donald F. Pitzer, Professor of History, Donald F. Carmony, Professor of History at Indiana University, and Hubert Hawkins, Director of the Indiana Historical Bureau, will serve as presiding officers at the first official Bicentennial event in Indiana. The two-day symposium will be conducted under the auspices of the Indiana American Revolution Bicentennial Commission and will be held on May 16 and 17 at New Harmony.

The Bicentennial celebration will bring together a distinguished panel of historians and anthropologists from major universities throughout the country. Thomas D. Clark, Professor of History at Indiana University, will speak on "The Advance of the Anglo-American Frontier, 1700-1783."

New Harmony was selected to host the Indiana historical conference as the town that nurtured significant developments in American education and the natural sciences during the 1800's. It is now undergoing an $18 million two-year restoration and revitalization that is designed to turn it into a new American center for cultural and scientific activities.

The two-day event will include roundtable discussions at New Harmony's historic Thrall's Opera House, based on the conferences' general theme -- "Contest for Empire in the Ohio Valley and the Old Northwest." The symposium is sponsored by the Indiana American Revolution Bicentennial Commission, Indiana State University Evansville, New Harmony Memorial Commission, Indiana Historical Society, and Harmonie Associates.

HUMAN RELATIONS WORKSHOP SCHEDULED. The In-Service Institute in Human Relations will hold a workshop Saturday, May 17 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in Room 126 of the Administration Building. The workshop will present the topic of "Value Clarification." Dr. Morris J. Weinberger, Associate Professor of Education at Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio, will present the topic and lead discussion.

Interested persons are invited to attend.
